

A. Gleason are members of the Park Board.

JESSE F. IVES' WILL NAMES SIX LEGATEES

A petition for permission to probate the will of Jesse F. Ives, vice president of the Stimson Mill Company, who died June 6, was filed with County Clerk George Grant yesterday by the Bank of California, executor.

No estimate of the value of the will is given, but six legatees are named as follows: Mary E. Ives, former wife, Los Angeles; Mary Young Ives, wife, Seattle; Doris Ives Masters and Alice Ives Richardson, daughters, Los Angeles; L. H. Ives, son, and Edward Charles McManus, stepson, Seattle.

The will was executed April 14, 1920. The bank was named executor in a codicil dated January 1, 1924.

Cornish Players Have Appreciative Audience

Before a sizeable and appreciative audience last night, the Cornish Players presented George Bernard Shaw's play, "Man and Superman."

The cast, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Burton W. James, includes Katherine Gies, Clifford Dobson, Harold Newnan, Burton W. James, Donna Lunn, Ella Lemon, Helen Bornstein, Jack Smart, Robert Anderson and William T. Marceau.

"Man and Superman" will be repeated tonight in the Cornish Theatre.

Water Shut-Off Notice.

Water will be shut off on 15th Avenue South from Judkins Street to Grand Street, Monday from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Pressure will be low on the high points of Beacon Hill during the same hours.