

Joanne Ives Bride Of R. E. Hannay

(See Columns 3 and 4 for photograph)

Miss Joanne Jesse Ives, daughter of Mrs. Laurence H. Ives and the late Mr. Ives, and Mr. Robert Eames Hannay, son of Mr. John K. Hannay and Mrs. Margaret T. Hannay, were married last night in Trinity Lutheran Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Richard Ives Richardson, wore a ballerina-length gown of nylon net and lace with a pearl headpiece and short veil. She carried white orchids and camassia.

Mrs. Kenneth J. Lundgren was her sister's matron of honor, and Miss Patricia Wright was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Dale Parsons and Miss Lynn Pierson.

The attendants wore French-blue taffeta ballerina-length gowns with matching headpieces and carried American Beauty roses.

Mr. Edward T. Lee was the best man. Ushering were the Messrs. Marshall Paris, William Crawford, Kenneth J. Lundgren and Lieut. Robert Fletcher.

Mrs. Ives wore a sheath dress of ecru lace over pink satin, with matching lace hat and pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore orchid chiffon and lace, with matching hat and pink accessories.

Pouring and assisting at the reception in the Seattle Yacht Club were the Mesdames E. C. Wither, Walter Shiel, William M. Culliton, George Gunn, Jr., George Kachlein, Jr. Clyde Summerville, Dean Archey, Waldo Hemphill, Lawrence Calvert, Frank Lovering of Yakima, Vernon Fitzgerald, Richard Richardson, Harlan Lewis, William Crawford, Byrne Fisksen and Edward T. Lee and the Misses Yeteve Taake and Edna Martin.

For the wedding trip to Hawaii Mrs. Hannay changed to a navy-blue suit with white accessories.

Mrs. Hannay was graduated from St. Nicholas School and attended the University of Washington where she affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta
