

large number of Dahlia Society ribbons and several commercial awards. They will go to the winners in the various sections represented by cactus, hybrid, peony and decorative dahlias and to various amateur and the courtesy of orchestra leaders who have donated their services. Jackie Souders', Henry Damski's, Roland Cornelius', Warren Anderson's, Max Berliner's and Prof. Joe Carney's orchestras will play during the show.

SERVICES TAKE PLACE FOR J. F. SWALWELL

Son of Dexter Horton Bank Board
Chairman Died Saturday Evening.

Funeral services for Joseph Frederick Swalwell, son of J. A. Swalwell, chairman of the board of the Dexter Horton National Bank, were to take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the Bonney-Watson Chapel with the Rev. Dr. John D. McLauchlan, pastor of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, officiating.

Mr. Swalwell, who was 24 years old, died suddenly Saturday evening at his home, 1825 Federal Ave. He had been ill only a short time. He was a civil engineer.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Swalwell is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ruth Swalwell; a brother, Howard, and a sister, Mrs. William Edris.

Police Chief Seeks More Automobiles For Patrol Duty

EXTRA police automobiles for patrol duty and reorganization of office space, including a change to the California plan of booking prisoners at the jail instead of at a booking office, are among the plans Police Chief W. H. Searing and Inspector Hans Damm are working out.

Whatever changes are decided upon will not be put into effect until after the first of the year, when an appropriation from the City Council will be available.

Chief Searing announced he hopes to install a "central bureau" at police headquarters which will be a clearing house for all routine work of the department. Under the present system various departments have their own files.

Coolidge Up Early For Fishing Trip On

"DEAD MAN'S CURVE" TAKES ANOTHER LIFE

One Dead, Three Injured in Mishap on Redmond-Fall City Road.

"Dead Man's Curve," the treacherous graveled turn on the Redmond-Fall City Road a mile north of Redmond where several fatal accidents have occurred, early yesterday morning claimed another victim when Alvin Bailey of Bothell was killed and his three companions seriously injured after their machine left the highway and overturned.

All the injured men are expected to recover. It was stated at the Swedish Hospital, Owen E. Lodge, 25 years old, Pacific Hotel, was the most seriously hurt. He suffered internal injuries.

Edward Bruckner, 46, 1504 Third Ave., and James Stavrou, proprietor of the Oxford Cafe, 1107 First Ave., suffered a fractured arm and internal injuries, respectively.

Dr. William J. Jones, chief deputy coroner, today said an inquest into Bailey's death would be held with a view to fixing the blame, if any, for the fatality. Bailey's body was taken to Kirkland to await funeral arrangements.

Mexico Charges Theft Of Archaeological Treasures

MERIDA, Yucatan, Mexico, Monday, Sept. 6.—(AP)—By order of the attorney-general of the republic, the federal district attorney today made official charges against Edward H. Thompson, former United States consul at Progreso, of illegally having removed from the country valuable archaeological treasures, gold, jade and silver, which he said had been found years ago in a sacred well in the ruins of Chichenitzan. Thompson owns a ranch at that place.

The charges include Harvard University, the Peabody Museum in Boston and the Field Museum, Chicago, which are alleged to have acquired these objects. They are accused of

Elect

NEW Monday go how sleep a rays be circles
Your