

hip sition," by Will Durant, will be re-er- viewed by Mrs. Broussals C. Beck
rs. in the library.

YOUNG WOMAN MARRIED AT HOME

Mrs. Ruth Niblock Swalwell
Becomes Bride of Mr. L.
H. Ives; Leave for South

THE marriage of Mrs. Ruth Niblock Swalwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Niblock, to Mr. Laurance Howell Ives, son of the late Mr. Jesse Ives of Seattle, was very quietly solemnized on Tuesday morning at the Niblock residence.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Mark Allison Matthews in the presence of the immediate relatives, and there were no attendants.

The bride wore her traveling costume, a smart navy blue tulleur with a small blue straw hat and a fox fur with a corsage bouquet of orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Ives left for a month's trip to California and will be at home at The Washington Arms on their return.

Mt. Baker Guild Dance Committees