I don't remember when we moved into the new house, although there still was much to be done after 1915. It had been a strenuous and tiring three years for my parents, but is was a happy confident young family that looked to the future in a 1914 Christmas photograph. (see pics).

The next decade (1916-25) was mostly happy times. Dad's livestock projects were maturing, requiring all the barn space. So a separate 20'x50' machine shed was built in 1917 to house the farm machinery; it cost $400. And in 1919 a new hollow tile hog house, 24'x48' was built south of the barn yard for about $1,000. The expanded livestock program also included poultry by my mother. Her chicken and egg money added significantly to their cash flow. These years included WWI which spawned the rise and fall of prices. It also encouraged further investment in drainage, fencing, and other farm improvements. In 1917, Dad's itemized sales of grain and livestock totaled $3,585.80. To Grandpa he wrote, "Your 1/2=$1,298.74 -- Not a very big year."

The next 3 years were better. However, 1919 brought troubles -- Warren Ives died intestate on October 23, 1919 at the age of 96. To keep the farm home they had maintained for his parents, Grandpa had to buy out the other 3 heirs at the inflated land prices caused by the war. To do this he mortgaged the Rolfe property at the State Savings Bank for $16,000, later refinanced for $18,000 in 1925. Meanwhile, the Allen Land Co. in Pocahontas had pursued the possibility that it had a legitimate claim to all the Swamp Lands presumed to have existed in the county, which would have included Grandpa's 199 acres. But at the August, 1920 term of the 14th Judicial District of Iowa in an "action to quiet title, " Judge James De Land ruled:

It is therefore hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the Plaintiff, Milo R. Ives is the absolute and unqualified owner in fee simple of the real estate and premises hereinabove described, and his title thereto is hereby confirmed and established against the claims of all persons whomever, and especially against the claims of each and all of the defendants named herein, both known and unknown, in and to said real estate.

This decision certainly was a great relief to Granpa. And while the post-war depression dealt harshly with many Iowa farmers, we at Rolfe and at Oxford were not terribly hurt by it. In fact, our greatest concern was the hint in 1924 of the terminal illness that would take Dad's life five years later. However, the scare was shrugged off, and he went on improving and expanding his farming operations. Then on December 31, 1926 (as probably was intended) Grandpa transferred his "Rolfe farm" (with its $18,000 mortgage to Dad for $2,000 (by note). In view of the further declines in land values that would take place, this price of approximately $100 per acre was not unreasonable.

However, for most Iowa farmers, the post-war squeeze had begun to hurt. In our situation fixed costs for taxes, interest, and insurance were close to $2,000 annually, to which life insurance premiums added another $500. Consequently, not much was left over for other farm and living expenses.

I graduated from high school in May, and in August Dad was operated on for a brain tumor. His recovery was minimal, and he died on August 22, 1929. Even though his life insurance paid off the debts that had accumulated during his illness, plus Grandpa's note, and the mortgage held by the Equitable of Iowa Assurance Society, these were very stressful times for Mom.

As administratrix for the Robert B. Ives estate, guardian for her two minor children (Mary age 9 and me, 19), and managing-operator of the home farm, her new responsibilities went far beyond housekeeping, gardening, and family social matters. Especially worrisome were the record keeping (down to the last penny) and reporting requirements, not to mention the annoyance and costs of the legalities involved in estate probate and guardianship matters. A few of the records have been assembled in manuscript F-H. But with the help of many friends, neighbors, and hired help we managed fairly well for the next 2 years.

Because of the worsening recession and her own rather frail health (due in part to her 1915 ruptured appendix and a 4-week bout with neuritis in 1917), this momentous decision was made - she would have a farm sale and find a tenant she liked to rent the place. Although her income would not be large, she felt that with Mary going to school she could get along better living in town than in the country. So here is what happened:

After the corn picking was finished, the farm sale was held on November 29, 1930. On December 1, I went to Estherville to work for Harold and Blanch (Ives) Sorensen and attend college part time; and in February, 1931, Mom and Mary moved to a small house in Rolfe. And for the next 58 years this Iowa farm home was occupied most of the time by tenants who farmed the land, which became known as the "Maude Ives Farm." Here is a brief summary:

1). Elwyn & Blanch Hansen - 1931-33

Elwyn had been Dad's hired man in 1926. They were the promising young couple Mom picked to take over the farming & upkeep of this better than average rental property. But he died in 1933.

2). Lloyd Hocking & sons - 1934-35

Early years of the New Deal farm program. Since the Hocking family did not use the house, Mom and Mary with Ruth Fisher moved back to the farm. They got along well by raising a large garden, chickens, and even pigs.

3). Arlo Ives with Robert and Bea Ives - 1936-42

WWII was coming on - with cousin Arlo as her tenant, Mom was spared most of the farm management problems; and with prices improving, so did her income. However, with Ruth leaving to be married, Mary going to college, and her parents needing attention, it was still a difficult time for her.

4). Lee & Mildren Fisher - 1943-50

WWII ended and the Cold War began. The Fishers had been friends of my parents, and they were eager to have the farm when Arlo was ready to change. So they came on in 1943. At the same time, Mom moved into an apartment that Ruth and Wilbur Allbee had made for her in their Rolfe home. Her guardian responsibilities were over, but making farm decisions had become worrisome, and she was glad to turn them over to Jim Wilson to manage. The Fishers were not satisfied, and they moved to a farm in Minnesota.

5). Virgil & Kate Thorson - 1951-57

The Thorsons were favorably known in the Rolfe community, and when Virgil was willing for me to join him in a livestock program, we were glad to have them as tenants. However, these were not good years for even the best of farmers, and in 1957 they decided to quit farming.

6). Hap & Betty Brown - 1958-59

With pre-war farm problems resurfacing, we were glad to have this capable couple continue the crop and livestock program started with the Thorsons. Unfortunately, Hap's health made it necessary for them to give up farming.

7). Jack & Ethel Cordes - 1960-77

By 1960, great changes were at work in American agriculture. Jack had agreed to continue the livestock partnership with me, but by 1962 we both were dissatisfied with the arrangement - he because it was not very profitable, and I because I had become too busy to have an active interest in the project. So, reverting to a crop-share lease, the Cordeses continued to do a passable job for several more years, even though they were unhappy with the new technology and government programs that had become a big part of farming.

8). Ron & Joan Dreith - 1978-88

When we retired to Rolfe in 1976, Iowa agriculture was well into the "Second Agricultural Revolution." The pent up improvements in crop production - larger and more powerful farm machinery, chemical fertilizer, herbicides, and pesticides, hybrid corn and the soybean as a new cash crop - were relentlessly crowding out the traditional "family farm." Fortunately, Ron & Joan Dreith (she the daughter of neighbors Don and Frances Cleal) were eager to move on to the Maude Ives farm. And with the house and other building standing vacant, Mom was happy to have them; they saved her home from becoming a country eyesore. But there was no turning back the clock. Farms continued to get larger but fewer; capital investments in machinery became increasingly important; and with a new generation of farmers coming on the "new agriculture" left little room for the farm home Bob and Maude Ives had built some 50 years before.

Mom died on April 17, 1987. A year later the Dreiths moved to the Cleal farm two miles away. There being no one in our family who wanted to live here, the best alternative seemed to be to sell out. There were several bidders, but descendants of the pioneer Brinkman family wanted the land for their "spread." And on March 1, 1989, it became their property. Evelyn's consoling remark was, "Mom would have approved, she liked Phil and Bette."

A final point to be noted about Mom and "her farm" is their similarity --
Land bought by Milo Ives 1888 1889 Mom born near Oxford, IA
It's development began 1912 1913 Mom & Dad moved to Rolfe
Dad became it's owner 1926 1928 Mom had to take over
Sold to Bette Brinkman 1988 1987 Mom died at Clear Lake, IA

In a sense, both were pioneers; their long "lives" began and ended at approximately the same time; in a very real way they were supportive of each other; and both were well known and admired by friends and neighbors.

So mote it be."

Presonal communication, Carrie Ann Carpenter, 12 Oct 2011 --
"They lived in Spencer Wisconsin on a farm.
Victor Ives Carpenter played trombone and toured around the country with one of the big bands of the 40's leaving Lucy to manage the farm and the children. One of their children (Floyd Henry) is my father. Floyd had a twin - Lloyd to passed away at a young age due to polio.

I remember having many talks with my grandma as she would explain that when grandpa would come back from touring with the band... shortly thereafter she was pregnant again! She had several miscarriages as a result of the hard farm work and caring for the other children while he was away. She was a strong woman, and I can remember an incident when she was older in life and chopping wood, she nearly chopped her thumb off - but she went in the house and grabbed her own needle and thread and sewed it back on because she didn't have time to slow down!"

"Ives, Donald G., M.D. 82, of Pleasant Prairie (formerly of Milwaukee and later Mequon, WI) advanced to his Eternal Life where he joined God and many loved ones on Wednesday, July 23, 2008. Dr. Ives, born Nov. 9, 1925, grew up in Milwaukee, WI, the only child of the late Clarence V. and Ella C. (Kilian) Ives. This hard working family met the challenges of the Depression era by upholding their ethical standards of preparedness, honesty, integrity, frugality, and diligence. Even though neither of Dr. Ives' parents had any formal education beyond high school, when Don was very young, he decided to become a medical doctor and committed his plans to the achievement of that goal. To finance his education, he worked in his uncle's nursery and on an assembly line near downtown Milwaukee. During his last year of medical school Don contracted TB, and endured 18 months of confinement as part of his treatment. Nevertheless, upon his release, he successfully completed his course of study and graduated from Marquette University School of Medicine in 1951. On June 16, 1951, only three days after his graduation, Donald and the love of his life, Louise E. Thill, were married. Soon after their wedding, they moved to Ann Arbor, MI, where Dr. Ives completed his training in Neurology and Psychiatry at the University of Michigan Medical School. In 1955 he delivered their only child, Donna, at home. After completing his course of study, Dr. Ives and his family moved back to Milwaukee. Shortly thereafter he entered private practice in Whitefish Bay and joined the staff at St. Michael Hospital. Dr. Ives was instrumental in establishing the hospital's psychiatric unit and twice served as their chief of staff. Because the world of medicine and research was providing rapidly evolving knowledge relevant to his practice, Dr. Ives devoted himself to study and research that continued until only weeks before his death. He retired in 1992. Dr. and Mrs. Ives were devoted members of Trinity Presbyterian Church in Milwaukee for many years before they moved to Mequon and became equally devoted to Crossroads Presbyterian Church. Dr. Ives was a member of the Wisconsin Conference of Churches ecumenical ad hoc committee that assisted and supported the Office of Pastoral Services, an ecumenical pastoral counseling service devoted to clergy and their families. Eager to experience the wonders of life, Dr. and Mrs. Ives traveled widely within the U.S. and around the world. They often escaped Wisconsin's winters for a few weeks in Florida frequenting Winter Haven and Sanibel Island. Dr. Ives, an amateur photographer, enjoyed filming their travels and created an extensive collection of home-movies. Closer to home, the Ives build a cottage in northern Wisconsin, where their relatives and friends joined them "north of the tension zone". Dr. Ives often awoke early for a solitary hike through the woods, and did all he could to preserve the natural beauty of the land. No holiday season was complete without the Ives' Christmas party. After turkey with all the trimmings, Dr. Ives made sure Santa Claus would visit with gifts for all. Dr. Ives will be remembered not only for holding his parents' values, but also for his generous spirit. Patients' unpaid bills were forgiven, the doors to his vacation homes were always open to family and friends, and his daughter, grandchildren, and great - grandchildren never went without. After suffering heart disease with subsequent bypass surgery, Dr. Ives was diagnosed with Parkinson's disease. In 2002, Dr. and Mrs. Ives moved to Pleasant Prairie, WI, to be near their daughter and grandchildren. He courageously endured the limitations of his progressive disease at home in the loving care of his dear wife, family, and caregivers. Dr. Ives passed away peacefully in his sleep very early Wednesday morning. Donald G. Ives is survived by his wife Louise E. (Thill); daughter, Donna L Ives-Kimpel (formerly Townsend); granddaughter, Katherine M. Kimpel; grandson, Benjamin C. Kimpel (Kristi L. From: http://articles.courant.com/2004-09-02/news/0409010718_1_dairy-cattle-husband-josephine/2 --

Roger Leete Ives, III, age 79, of Suffield, died Tuesday, (August 31, 2004). He was the husband of Elaine (Cooper) Ives. Born in Sharon, on September 21, 1924, he was the son of Roger and Maude (Millett) Ives. He lived and worked on his father's dairy farm until he was 13 years old. Following the death of his father in 1938, his mother having died in 1931, Roger lived with his grandmother in Tewksbury, MA where he graduated from Tewksbury High School in 1943. He graduated in 1947 from Stockbridge, the School of Agriculture at the University of Massachusetts where he received a distinguished alumnus award in 1967. Upon graduation, he worked for five years as a herdsman with an excellent herd of Brown Swiss cattle at HyCrest Farm, Leominster, MA. In October 1948, Roger was married to Elaine Cooper of East Princeton, MA, ``just down the hill from HyCrest''. In 1952, Roger accepted a position with the Massachusetts Selective Breeding Association in Shrewsbury, MA, working in the laboratory and doing initial field trials with frozen semen for artificial insemination in dairy cattle. While there the laboratory exported a shipment of frozen semen to England in November 1954 which is believed to be the first such shipment outside of the United States. In January 1956, Roger, in partnership with Angelo Barisone, established a custom semen freezing service for breeders of registered dairy cattle, Soligenics Frozen Semen Service. Roger moved his family and business to Suffield, a town he loved as a youth when he lived here with his father. In June 1957, Roger bought his partner's interest and he and Elaine operated the business until Roger's death. Roger loved his work and the people he knew through his business. Roger was an active man. He served on the Zoning Board of Appeals and was Deacon and Co- Chairman of the Organ Fund at the First Church of Christ, Congregational in Suffield. He loved gardening and was well known for his beautiful display of chrysanthemums and other flowers outside his home and the vegetables he distributed throughout the town. Roger is survived by his wife, Elaine; and a son, Roger Leete Ives, IV and his wife, Marianna of Woodstock; three daughters, Cathy Beaulieu of Suffield, Jacquelyn and her husband, David Hemond of Simsbury, Melissa and her husband, Gary Moxley of Frederick, MD; eight grandchildren, James and his wife, Lauren Beaulieu, Christy and her husband, Rhett Bannish, Jacob Beaulieu, Eric and Amy Hemond and Alex, Nicholas and Jesse Moxley; five step grandchildren, David, Timothy, Elizabeth, Matthew and Liz; and three great grandchildren, Ethan, Josephine and Kirsten. Roger and Maude (Millett) Ives. He lived and worked on his father's dairy farm until he was 13 years old. Following the death of his father in 1938, his mother having died in 1931, Roger lived with his grandmother in Tewksbury, MA where he graduated from Tewksbury High School in 1943. He graduated in 1947 from Stockbridge, the School of Agriculture at the University of Massachusetts where he received a distinguished alumnus award in 1967. Upon graduation, he worked for five years as a herdsman with an excellent herd of Brown Swiss cattle at HyCrest Farm, Leominster, MA. In October 1948, Roger was married to Elaine Cooper of East Princeton, MA, "just down the hill from HyCrest". In 1952, Roger accepted a position with the Massachusetts Selective Breeding Association in Shrewsbury, MA, working in the laboratory and doing initial field trials with frozen semen for artificial insemination in dairy cattle. While there the laboratory exported a shipment of frozen semen to England in November 1954 which is believed to be the first such shipment outside of the United States. In January 1956, Roger, in partnership with Angelo Barisone, established a custom semen freezing service for breeders of registered dairy cattle, Soligenics Frozen Semen Service. Roger moved his family and business to Suffield, a town he loved as a youth when he lived here with his father. In June 1957, Roger bought his partner's interest and he and Elaine operated the business until Roger's death. Roger loved his work and the people he knew through his business. Roger was an active man. He served on the Zoning Board of Appeals and was Deacon and Co- Chairman of the Organ Fund at the First Church of Christ, Congregational in Suffield. He loved gardening and was well known for his beautiful display of chrysanthemums and other flowers outside his home and the vegetables he distributed throughout the town. HISTORICAL NOTE

The earliest recorded pottery making in the Red Wing area is credited to a German immigrant named J. Pohl who in 1861 began fashioning crude crocks on his farm. He used the clay deposits on his own property and hand-turned his ware on a treadle wheel.

In 1868 W. M. Philleo began manufacturing flower vases in Red Wing using local clay. He manufactured unglazed terra cotta ware until his pottery works burned in 1870. He rebuilt his small factory but ran into financial difficulty and abandoned his business shortly thereafter. D. Hallem, who had worked with Philleo for a short time, continued to manufacture pottery in a small way in his home.

Red Wing Potteries, Inc. traces its beginnings to 1877 when a group of Red Wing citizens met to consider the subject of organizing a company for the manufacture of stoneware. Incorporated in 1877, the Red Wing Stoneware Company purchased the meager assets of Hallem and constructed larger, more efficient kilns. The company was a success from the start, digging its clay locally and producing quality stoneware crocks, jugs, and milk pans of various shapes and sizes.

The Red Wing Stoneware Company prospered over the years and the company's apparent success encouraged others to enter the field. In 1883 the Minnesota Stoneware Company was organized and began manufacturing across the street from the Red Wing Stoneware plant. Nine years later, in 1892, another company, the North Star Stoneware Company, was formed. The North Star owners built their works in the immediate vicinity of their two competitors.

To meet the competition of the newer and larger North Star plant, a partial merger was effected in 1894 between the Red Wing and Minnesota Stoneware companies, a joint selling agency called the Red Wing Union Stoneware Company. The joining of forces turned out to be a profitable move for the two older companies because the new rival, the North Star plant, ceased operation in 1897.

In February 1900, the Minnesota Stoneware plant burned to the ground, and nine months later, in November, the Red Wing Stoneware Company also burned. Both plants rebuilt immediately, continued to prosper, and, pleased by the success of their partial merger in 1894, chose to merge completely in 1906. They continued the name Red Wing Union Stoneware Company, and the city of Red Wing was left with only one pottery.

In the following two decades the Red Wing Union Stoneware Company enjoyed continued prosperity. Unfortunately, in the 1920s the market for stoneware began to dwindle. Thus the company was forced to diversify and open up new markets. Company officials chose to enter the dinnerware field.

Red Wing dinnerware caught on and began accounting for an increasing proportion of sales, with the stoneware products experiencing a proportionate decline. The officers felt that the name of the corporation, Red Wing Union Stoneware Company, did not logically reflect this changing product mix. The company was rapidly leaving the stoneware "jug and crock" field and entering the dinnerware or tableware field. Therefore, in January 1936, the shareholders voted to change the name from the "Red Wing Union Stoneware Company" to the "Red Wing Potteries, Inc."

While there are no financial records available prior to 1952, the 1930s and 1940s reportedly were prosperous years for Red Wing Potteries. By 1947 the company had discontinued all stoneware production and had assumed a leadership role in the dinnerware field.

Around 1950 a trend began that eventually was to be a factor in the demise of Red Wing Potteries. While in 1950 only ten percent of all dinnerware patterns displayed in department stores were of foreign origin, in 1967 nearly ninety percent were imports.

Beginning on June 1, 1967, a strike of the Local Union No. 6-430, Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union, AFL-CIO, lasted until August 24, when the president of the Pottery, R. A. Gillmer, announced that the stockholders had voted to liquidate the firm.

See Richard S. Gillmer, Death of a business: the Red Wing Potteries (Ross and Haines, 1968) for a more complete history of the company, and especially for details about the strike which brought on the liquidation in 1967.

Additional information for Edward (Bersau) H Hall:
From John Hall, 12 Mar 2010:

I do have some pics for your inclusions in the Hall lineage that I will scan and send to you.....With respect to information on my father's ancestors, it will be difficult, but perhaps your lineage software engine can find something. None of us know much consistent or valid information about my dad's past. The following are the best I can do:

1. My father was adopted by Hershel Johnson Hall as a teenager.
2. My father had a sister named Hildigard or Henri. They both came to the US as teenagers.
3. Their mother's name was Marta Louise Nieman and fathers name was Richard Biersau I believe--- although I am not sure either last name is spelled correctly.
4. I think my father was born in Latvia, but Danzig was also used as his birthplace.

5. His mother (Marta) had a sister who stayed in Europe. His mother smuggled onto a ship and came to America whereupon she was a home health aide to Hershel Johnson Hall. When Mr. Hall's wife passed away, Marta married him. They lived in Clarks Green.
6. My father and his sister will cared for in an orphanage in Latvia until their mother sent for them when they were teenagers -- 1935 or 1936 I think. Their father was reportedly inducted into the Army (French I heard) and was not an active parent. A lot of wars going on over that period.
7. What is also of interest to us, is whether our father and his parents were Jewish. Sometimes we were told we had Jewish blood in us, and other times not.....He was raised as a Christian when he came to the US and we heard the orphanage he and his sister were in was run by Catholic nuns.

Anyway, as you can tell, the children and our children no very little about my dad's ancestry died Thursday in Phoenix after one of the most recent promising developments to medical science had added precious weeks to a life which other wise would have ended soon after June 18 of this year. On that date the scarlet fever damaged kidneys of the former El Paso High School and Texas Western football player ceased to function.

The kidneys the filtering system for the blood of the human body are among the organs which are essential to human life and death follows within a few days after they are no longer able to act and has given study of kidney malfunction support in developing Mr. Ives with a treatment in his arm. I think we can expect at present time is expensive for the average person and the equipment too rare for wide use an artificial kidney with which the patient spends an eight hour period each week and which purifies the body's blood by means of a filter The rest of the week the patient is able to live a reasonably normal life so long as he returns when necessary for treatment or some other disability occurs. In a few cases the kidneys have been restored to normal in the meantime a plastic catheter called a canula is inserted permanently into the patients arm through a vein and into an artery. During he treatment the body's blood passed through the machine and is returned to the body minus the accumulated impurities. Mr. Ives life was prolonged four months by the machine one of three which are in the United States. Other patients are on record who have lived long periods with the aid of the machine. The treatment must still be classed as largely experimental and is used on carefully selected patients who it is believed it will benefit. In Mr.

school in Canton, MA, teaching students with disabilities. She married and had two sons, Ian and Gordon Graham. Marion earned graduate degrees from Tufts University and Boston University. In 1961 following a divorce, Marion, a single mother at the time but a real trail blazer, became the first full-time female faculty member at Bentley College in Boston. She went on to become Bentley's first fully tenured female professor in 1974. In 1994, she retired from Bentley University, now in Waltham, after 33 years of teaching English, English literature and composition.

In 1965, Marion married Warrington (Bill) Willis and the family moved to Derry, NH. Marion served several terms on the Derry School Board in the late 60's and early 70's and was instrumental in the construction of the Derry Village School and the first addition to the Gilbert H. Hood Middle School. For almost 50 years she was an active member of the First Parrish Church in East Derry and was a strong supporter of its current renovation. She also served several terms on the Derry Zoning Board. As an early advocate for the preservation of Derry's historic buildings, the preservation of open space and of controlled growth, she also contributed to and helped write several of the Town's Master plans. For her many years of service to the Town of Derry, she, along with her two sisters, Elizabeth Ives and Margaret Ives, were recognized by the Chamber of Commerce as co-citizens of the year in 2009.

Marion was a model of strength and determination. She possessed an unquenchable thirst for knowledge and was a voracious reader. She consumed the written word like most people breathe oxygen. Marion had an in-depth knowledge of American, European and world history and literature. She was a gifted conversationalist and had a real knack for nurturing and enriching the minds of her colleagues, students, family members both young and old, and her many friends, including her dear friends in Questers, which she joined after retiring from Bentley. For years Marion somehow found time to maintain beautiful gardens at her home on South Main Street. She was a wonderful cook and was able to whip up holiday meals and mouthwatering baked goods with seemingly little effort from her cramped kitchen. She delighted in entertaining her large extended family and friends at the countless holiday gatherings and celebrations she and her husband Bill hosted.

Marion's judgement, strength of will and the confidence she had in her own convictions (some might say stubbornness) were marvels to behold. For her 91 years on this earth, there was rarely a moment she was not in control of the room she was in. When she spoke, people listened. Marion's love of her family, her wisdom and her spirit will continue to serve as an inspiration for all who knew her.

Marion is survived by her sister Margaret Ives of Derry, and brother Robert T. Ives of Valparaiso, IN; her son Gordon Graham and his wife Tracy of Derry, daughter-in-law Rebeca (Knox) Graham of Spokane, WA, step daughter Janet Jones and her husband Jim of Martha's Vineyard, MA, and her step-son Richard Willis of Philadelphia, PA: grandchildren Shannan McKenna and her husband Dan, Alyssa Garrigan and her husband John, Owen Graham, step-grandchildren Beth (Jones) Moginot and Sarah (Jones) Girotti, and Chris, Matthew, and Mandy Willis, and their families; and great grandchildren Brynn, Colin, Addison and Graham as well as many other dear cousins and relatives. She was predeceased by her parents, her husband Bill Willis, her sister Elizabeth Ives, her oldest son Ian Graham, and step-son Russell Willis.

An outdoor memorial service/celebration of life will be held Saturday, October 10th at 1:00 PM at the First Parish Church in East Derry, NH. Additional information for Edward Dewey Graham Jr:

From: https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/129135995/edward-dewey-graham --

"Professor Edward Dewey Graham, 86, of Okemos, Michigan, died on April 28. He was the only son of Edward Dewey Graham, Sr. and Helen Ann (Murphy) Graham.

Raised in Portland, Maine, he was educated in its public schools, graduating from Deering High School, where he played football, edited the school newspaper, and was a state champion debater. One week after graduation he enlisted in the U.S. Army, in which he trained as an armored infantryman but, in fact, became editor of a weekly camp newspaper. The times and his postings made it impossible for him ever to win the one medal he coveted: the combat infantry badge.

After separation from the service he worked as a reported for The Portland Press Herald and its affiliated radio station, WGAN. In the fall of 1948, entered Harvard College, from which he graduated with honors in history in the class of 1952. He enrolled in Harvard's Graduate School of Arts and Letters, from which he received his AM and PhD. degrees in history, concentrating on the 18th and 19th century experiences of American merchants, missionaries, and diplomats in China. As a graduate student he had his first experience of teaching, the calling that was to be at the heart of his life's work.

From Cambridge, Mr. Graham moved to Washington, D.C. where he was the one-man history department at Mt. Vernon Junior College (now Mt. Vernon College). After three years in Washington, he received an appointment in the Humanities Department of Michigan State University's University College. From 1962 until the dissolution of that college and department, he taught undergraduate courses in Western civilization and, with a Chinese-American colleague, developed a course that proved to be enduringly popular entitled The Cultural Traditions of China.

With Michigan State's abandonment of general education, Mr. Graham joined the History Department, which remained his academic home until retirement. There he taught courses in Chinese history, including an experimental television course built around a series of documentary films.

Coincident with his appointment to the History Department, Mr. Graham became Acting Director of MSU's Asian Studies Center, a one year assignment, one achievement of which was winning three grants from the Chang-Ching Kuo Foundation in its first year as a grant awarding entity. At the end of this assignment, Mr. Graham was appointed Assistant Dean for International Studies and Programs, a position he held until his retirement in 1993.

Mr. Graham married twice. In 1954 he married Marion Sydney Ives of Scranton, Pennsylvania (who survives him), they had two sons, Edward Ian (Becky) Graham of Spokane, Washington, and Gordon Bruce (Tracy) Graham of Derry, New Hampshire all of whom survive him. In 1960 he married the love of his life, Leah Dorothy Louis of Ashtabula, Ohio who predeceased him on October 12, 2012. They had two children, Ann (Rob) Nichols and Peter Timothy (Mary) Graham, both of East Lansing (all of whom survive him). He also leaves seven grandchildren: Shannan (Dan) McKenna, Alyssa Graham and Owen Graham, of Derry New Hampshire; Sam Nichols, Sarah, Andrew, and John Graham, of East Lansing, and one great grand-daughter, Bryn Olivia McKenna, of Derry, New Hampshire.

Growing up on the Maine coast, Mr. Graham was shaped by the sea and was always drawn back to it. Taught by his father to sail at an early age (he often said he learned sailing long before driving and would always rather do the former) owned a small boat whenever possible, and saw as much of the world as he could - the Great Lakes, the rivers of Europe and China, and the Atlantic itself-- from afloat.

Taken as a boy, again by his father, aboard the USS Constitution, he came to love naval history, and throughout his life took great pleasure in reading both scholarly works and novels of naval life, building ship models and admiring marine art.

His intellectual interests went well beyond the sea, however: he was the sort of reader who rarely met a book he didn't like, so long as it told a good yarn or asked a question that needed answering. He loved poetry of all ages and cultures, from China's classic Book of Songs to the great modern poets, among whom Yeats was a particular favorite. From early times as a reader he memorized many of the verses he loved.

It may be that this range of interests, amounting really to a rainbow of intellectual passions, made him enjoy teaching, for he was always anxious to share one of his old loves, or his newest discovery, with anyone who would listen. Although he enjoyed writing and had a decent number of publications to his credit, he often said, jokingly, that he was only acting the part of a scholar/teacher. He was really, he explained, a ham performer who dressed the part, entered the classroom and acted as if he were a professor who knew what he was talking about.

As he left the University he asked that any money contributed for a retirement gift be given to the MSU Children's Garden, such donations being recognized by inscribed paving bricks. He asked that one such bear the lines from Chaucer's description of the Clerk of Oxenford:

And gladly would he learn,
And gladly teach.
That, Mr. Graham thought, summed up his own career splendidly.

A memorial service for Mr. Graham was held on Wednesday, May 21 at The Peoples Church in East Lansing.

In lieu of flowers, it was his wish that donations be made to The Apalachicola Riverkeeper, Apalachicola, Florida.

"Jean Perry Ives (April 9, 1931 - November 20, 2021), daughter of the late Roy and Jane Perry, was born and raised in East Orange, NJ. Growing up, she loved being so close to New York City and briefly modeled for Neysa McMein, posing for a full-page portrait in the New York Times at age 10. At 16, Jean graduated early from high school and earned an undergraduate degree in chemistry and bacteriology from Douglass College followed by a Masters degree from Rutgers College.

At 17, she appeared on the cover page of the Douglass College yearbook. It was there that she met her soon-to-be husband, Albert Granger Ives II (passed in 1992). Jean worked at Bell Laboratories (aka Lucent) before following Al to France during his Korean War military service. From there, they moved back to Bridgewater Township, New Jersey.

In 1964, Jean and her family moved to Solon, Ohio, which soon became her "home town". Jean met many of her lifelong friends there. The Solon school kids all knew "Mrs. Ives" as one of the most engaging, fair-minded, positive parents around - like a mother to them as well.

Jean's mother, Jane Perry, was one of NYU's first female college athletes to compete and medal in track and field at Madison Square Garden and later became a state shuffleboard champion in Florida. Following in her footsteps, Jean played four years of varsity basketball and varsity field hockey at Douglass. During her career as a full-time mother to two boys, Jean played competitive tennis throughout northeastern Ohio. Adding to her never-ending list of interests, Jean pursued a hobby making jewelry along with her husband Al who did the gemstone lapidary work.

Jean was also known to throw very creative themed parties. For example - a "Clue" party where Jean and Al made an appearance as The Maid and Colonel Mustard. Once, when not invited to a party, they rented ape suits, crashed the party, and threw bananas at the house.

Following Al's post-Solon career moves to Rochester Hills, MI and Jefferson City, TN, they retired to their dream home on Hilton Head Island. There, Jean continued her passion for lifelong learning and community involvement. One of her adopted dogs, Easter, appeared on the Hilton Head Humane Society's donation poster at all the local checkout counters. Everyone on the island knew Easter and most of them knew Jean.

Throughout her life, she had an insatiable curiosity, a love of nature, and an aura of friendliness that drew you in. Jean passed peacefully at Village Cove, an assisted living facility just a mile from her home on Hilton Head.

Jean is survived by her children Bill Ives and Tom (Trudy) Ives and her six grandchildren Lindsay, Geoffrey, Lawson, Celine, Pierce and Jacquelyn. She is dearly missed.

A celebration of her life will be held at a later date.

Claudean Ives McAlexander

Claudean Ives McAlexander passed away peacefully on Sept. 12, 2015.

She was born May 31, 1929, to Clarence F. Ives and Gladys Lindsay Ives, longtime residents of Inyokern.

Her parents met while each was homesteading in the Indian Wells Valley in 1920. Gladys's parents, John and Mabel Lindsay, owned the general Merchandise store in Inyokern and employed Clarence (he also drove the school bus). After their marriage in 1923 in Inyokern, Clarence and Gladys returned to the Los Angeles area for a while, but returned to buy the store from John and Ethel McNeal in April 1929, a month before Claudean was born.

Claudean continued to live in the ever-growing community her parents were instrumental in building. She graduated in the first Burroughs High School class. She then went on to graduate from the University of Southern California, where she met her husband, Robert (Bud) L. McAlexander. She returned to raise her family in Inyokern while Bud worked as a civilian engineer at the Naval Ordnance Test Station.

While Claudean's children were young, she taught at Inyokern Elementary School and was a visiting teacher to children who could not attend school. Claudean and Bud moved their family to Virginia in the early 1960s and then back to the Silicon Valley in the late 1960s. Claudean went back to teaching full time for the San Jose Unified School District and retired from there after 20 years.

She then fulfilled one of her dreams by going back and getting her master's degree in political science from California State University at San Jose. Claudean and Bud retired to Paradise, Calif., where she converted an old garage to a tutorial site and continued to teach. Her last dream of returning to Inyokern and building a ranch for foster children on her father's homestead site above the airport was to remain unfulfilled because of ill health.

Claudean was predeceased by her husband Bud and is survived by her brother Lindsay, her sister Norma, her five children, and seven grandchildren, with the eighth on the way.

Claudean wrote and self-published a book about Inyokern, and her family and gave a copy to the Maturango Museum when she attended as part of the 100-year celebration, titled Returning to My Roots. It was her last trip to Inyokern.

Additional information for Albert Volney Ives:
Personal Communication, James Harvey Ives --
Albert Volney (RN=82) and Ruth Mildred (Lathrop) (RN=94) Ives

Albert was born 16 Dec 1909 in Talmage, NE. He lived with his mom, dad and two older sisters. His grandfather and uncle also lived in Talmage. Albert's family moved to Beaver, OK, where his two older sisters were married . He then moved with his family to San Bernardino, CA, as a young boy. He played football for San Bernardino High school. He graduated in June 1928. He worked for a tile company in town where they built the floor for the pavilion in Catalina. He worked a gold mine in the San Gabriel Mountains and hot rodded a model "A" up and down Highway 66 in his younger days.

He married Ruth Mildred Lathrop 2 May 1932 in Yuma, AZ. They moved to Santa Maria, CA; and he worked as a mechanic.

Albert moved his family to South Gate in 1936 and started to work for John Schleifer Chrysler Plymouth dealer in Huntington Park as a service manager. He got that job by fixing Mr. Schleifer's car. After WW II John Schleifer decided to incorporate, and Albert was made General manager. He was a member of Kiwanis, Elks and Jr. Chamber of Commerce.

The family then moved to Alhambra, CA. He was an Air Raid Warden during the war. He kept a map of the 4 blocks he patrolled that showed the location for every gas shut off and water main for each house.

His father-in-law (Nathan Lathrop) passed away in 1944; and he moved his family to La Canada CA with his mother-in-law (Maude Lathrop), where I, his oldest son who suffered from asthma, could breath better. Albert had to drive 30 miles each way (before freeways) to and from work. During the war he would repair cars at home on weekends as well as at work during the week. There was no such thing as spare parts. You made your own part. I remember helping dad shim bearings, turn armatures, sandblast spark plugs, rivet brake linings and clean air and oil filters. He fixed everything. No job was to big or to small.

He had a customer that was a Colonel in the army, Col Clark. Col Clark, as well as others that dad fixed cars for, did not pay him in money, some times they paid him in gas and tire ration stamps. He always had gas to go somewhere. He had a 1937 Chrysler Air Flow Straight Eight. This car could really fly. When we went anywhere on a trip he would drive over 100 miles an hour for a while just to see what it would do. He said he was blowing out the carbon. I don't think any of his cars ever had any carbon build up in it.

After I (James H. Ives) got married and moved away in 1954, he sold the home in La Canada and moved to Huntington Park, where he and mom raised my brother and sister. He was honored by Pete Schabarum and the Chamber of Commerce Jan, 1981, when he retired at the age of 71 from the car business.

Albert moved with mom and my brother, John and his wife and family, to a 27 acre ranch in Oregon. John was asst. General Manager at Schleifer for dad.

Albert was a competitor in everything he did. He worked and played hard. He loved golf which he took up in later years. He also loved to hunt. He would buy a case of shotgun shells a year and would have to buy more before the season was over. His boys also would help him go through his ammunition. He died in Oregon July 1, 1985 at the age of 76 years and 7 months.

Memories of my mother by Jim Ives, September 20, 2004

My first memories of my mother took place in a rain storm in South Gate, California. We were sitting under a covered rocking swing. It began to rain, mom and I just kept swinging away while it rained cats and dogs on us. That was so neat. I can still feel the warm rain and the steam coming off the roof and ground around us.

Mom always seemed to find time for us kids. I was the oldest and helped around the house when asked. I know if I needed help with what I was doing mom was always there to help. I remember sitting in front of our bay window looking out into the front yard and the street beyond. The kids would be playing football in the street and all I could do was to watch. I had asthma and could not play. Mom would tell me, "some time in the future you will out grow it and be able to play with them". She was right, but it was not until I went away to college, that's when I finally out grew it. Mom just loved to work in the garden. She would cut, prune, and trim all the time. It was my -job to pick up after her and put everything in the trash pile to bum. I guess it was payback time for leaving my room in a mess and she would put my clothes away in the closet and make sure my bed was made right. She would wash and dry my clothes and put them away for me.

I remember some of the things we had to have as teenagers. All us boys had to be dressed in white shirts with long sleeves and collars. We would role up the sleeves three turns, the collars had to be starched and stand up straight. She never complained about washing and ironing my shirts, but sometimes I would hear her telling someone about us boys and having to have these white shirts to wear.

She did not drive a car until Chrysler made an automatic transmission. I was driving before she was. When Chrysler came out with the automatic, I remember dad telling mom, "well, we finally did it", they made a car for you. He was right. Mom started driving and she never looked back. Up until that time she always had to depend on someone else to take her wherever she wanted to go. Now, she could go where and when she wanted. I think it was liberating for her.

She was a house wife and took care of the home. She took care of us and all the other things of running a house. Dad brought in the money and mom spent it and kept track of the bills and what needed to be paid and such. She would tell dad what needed to be done and he and I would fix it or she would call someone in to do the job.

She was always making clothes for my sister and mending socks and patching holes in the knees for my brother and I. Our clothes were always clean and pressed. Maybe patched, but I was proud to ware them.

During the war I remember mom had a can on the stove and all the grease went into that can and on Friday we would take the tin cans and all the grease down to the corner where they would be picked up and used in fighting the war. We were doing out part. Dad was our Air Raid Warden for our Block. Mom was in charge of making sure all the drape and shades were pulled down in the house at night so no light would escape. We all were part of the war. We all tried to do our part and I never heard any talk about the country not doing the right thing. We were united in supporting our troops and our leaders. It would have been treason to talk about our country not doing the right thing. There wasn't any negative talk, except on how to kill every Jap or German and end the war. Talking about the kitchen with the pot of grease, I just have to tell this story. We lived before air-conditioners. My brother and I had our bedrooms on the upper floor and during the summer nights it got hot. I used to sneak down to the kitchen and put my pillow in the refrigerator for a little while and then sneak down to get it back. We1l one night I forgot to get it back from the refrigerator. Well, mom gets to the refrigerator first that morning and when she opened the refrigerator door this pillow falls out on her and she screams, thinking something was jumping out at her. She woke up the whole household. The family will always remember that morning when mom screamed because of the man in the refrigerator.

Mom was a good sport about everything. She loved to go camping. I'm not sure she was the one who wanted to go or it was dad, but she never complained. I think she loved it as much as he did. I know us kids sure loved to go camping. It was a time where we could all be alone together, play and have fun without mom and dad going away for this reason or that reason. Dad would get up and get the fire going, mom would fix us bacon and eggs, toast and jelly. Us kids would do the dishes. It was a great time to be together.

Mom graduated from Hospital School of Nursing, in Pasadena, CA in 1930. She did a little nursing in Santa Maria before I was born, but never went back into nursing after that. She used all her training on us kids. We were always getting banged up one way or another and she never flinched from the sight of blood. She was really strong it that way. I remember getting my finger caught in the honey extractor on Grandpa's farm in La Canada. I ran into the house and mom wrapped my hand in a towel and took me to a Dr. in Montrose, CA. He put 150 stitches in it and saved my finger. I am sure mom's handling of me and my hand before we got to the Dr. had something to do with saving my finger also.

Mom was not political, but was a volunteer in everything. During my school years she was involved with the PT A. During cub-scouts she was a cub-scout leader and then a girl-scout leader for my sister when she became a girl-scout. After I moved out and left for college, the family moved to Huntington Park, CA. Mom became active in the Woman's division of the Chamber of Commerce and was given an award for outstanding service when she and dad moved to Oregon in 1982. She was very active in her church wherever she was. Mom was a Presbyterian and was proud of it. There was no one better then a Presbyterian in her eyes. I remember attending my first church service with mom and grandma in Montrose, Ca. It was in the old movie theater in town, before our new building was built in La Canada, and I was wondering what would happen if the movie started at the same time. Mom was chairman of this and that in a1l the different chairs of church. She loved to bake and make things for people. She was always giving something away to this or that organization.

Additional information for Elnora "Zillah" Ives:

From Nancy Johnsen Curran. Zillah Ives met George Johnsen through her brother, Leonard Ives, who was in the U.S. Cavalry in Texas in the same troop. George fell in love with "beautiful, beautiful brown eyes" to quote a song of the day, when he saw a photograph she sent her brother. He came to the farm in Lake Luzerne to visit. Then Zillah went to Brooklyn to visit and married George there on November 20, 1920, when she was 17 years old and he was nearly 24. Thus began their life together, with six children and more than a score of grandchildren. Mom was a resourceful person who found many ways to make money for the family exchequer. She baked pies early in the mornings for a neighborhood bakery when the family lived in Brooklyn. In Saratoga Springs, she sewed hundreds of costumes for the local school's annual pageants, and she worked in the bathhouse, a job she disliked. She was one of the first women trained to cut gears during World War II at the Schenectady GE plant. After the war, she learned to type in order to find employment as a secretary in the Special Products Department, forerunner of the Research Laborator. She retired from General Electric as a secretary to Harrison Ottaway at the GE Research and Development Center, at the age of about 63, when she married for the third time. Then began an enjoyable career in the stationery department of the Carl Company downtown department store, where her special kind of friendliness won her many friends among the Carl Companies patrons. Church work and church organizations were Mom's second family. She was the President of many church women's organizations and enjoyed the opportunity to take part in seminars and retreats. She was loved by the

Additional information for Gunnar "George" Maurinius Johansen:

From Nancy Curran. George Maurice Johnsen was born as Gunnar Maurice Johansen. He changed his name when he enlisted in the U. S. Army, First Calvalry. He came to this country June 10, 1906, taking the boat-train to England, then departing aboard the Cunard SS Umbria from Hull and Liverpool to Ellis Island. His father, Anton Marinius Johansen, had emigrated a year earlier and sent for his wife and children. In Moss, the family lived on Vaalervegen, or Valerveien, on the souther shore of the freshwater lake, the Vansjoe, which today is surrounded by a well-tended park. In the middle of the lake is an island, which I remember Dad saying he used to swim to or ski to in the winter when he was a small child. The Cunard "Umbria" was built in 1884 by John Elder & Co., Govan, Glasgow, Scotland, later known as Fairfield Shipbuilding and Engineering, Ltd. Umbria commenced her maiden voyage on November 1, 1884 from Liverpool to New York and set the trans-Atlantic speed record in May 1887 by making the westward crossing in 6 days, 4 hours, 42 minutes, an average 18.89 knots per hour. She used 10 tons of coal per hour to reach a speed of 19 knots. The Umbria was scrapped in 1910. We can only imagine the excitement of a family of mother and children straining to see the face of their husband and father as they steamed into New York harbor. The Johansen-Lauritzen family settled in the Norwegian community at Bay Ridge, Brooklyn, probably attending Trinity Lutheran Church at 46th Street and 4th Avenue. Like so many Norwegians in Brooklyn, Gunnar may have joined the floorlayer's union, Faerder Lodge. He became a journeyman floorlayer, completing the union's apprentice training. He specialized in peautiful parquet floors. He was 5'9", athletic, with blond/light brown hair and blue-grey eyes. While in the U. S. Cavalry, he was champion boxer in his weight class. My early memories of him are his swimming across Lake Luzerne with me on his back. He loved the Adirondacks around Lake Luzerne and waited eagerly for the start of hunting and fishing seasons. Family tales say that a poem of his was published in the New York Times when he was a boy, recently arrived in the U.S. He was always an entertaining storyteller. I fondly remember him telling me stories about days in the Cavalry and listening to him sing popular songs of an earlier day, "My Darling Nellie Gray", and "The Big Rock Candy Mountain", especially. Recent letters from cousin Marilyn Gamar Hoksbergen relate the recollections of Esther, his younger sister, who remembered him "as a fun, if naughty, brother. Also she told me of his brilliance inttelectually. My mother was also a brillian mind, and she always referred to George as "the smart one". He was a math wizard and a near genius, at least. He marched to a different drummer, that's for sure, but so often bright people do. Also, I'm sure it was hard for him, as it was for my mother, to have parents who didn't value education". Marily recalls that her mother said that her parents like many immigrant parents, thought that children should bring money into the family. "My mother was brillian and loved school, but after eighth grade was told that girls didn't need any more school than that. My mother begged to go on to high school, but was denied that chance." Among the Ives family, Uncle Paul Ives commented that George could get along with anybody and had a very sweet and patient disposition. Uncle Paul especially admired Dad's linguistic ability. I can imagine a kid from Lake Luzerne going along with his Brooklyn brother-in-law on buying expeditions to the flooring dealers in Brooklyn. He was impressed with Dad's ability to negotiate with the Norwegian and Danish lumber dealers in their own languages.

My father died from heart failure due to having agent orange exposure from Vietnam. He owned MCKEE'S ELECTRICAL CONSTRUCTION until he was too ill and had to be wheelchair bound.

He was in the Navy during the Vietnam War I know he served two tours. I know very little about the war because he didn't like to talk about it.

After the war he was in a motorcycle accident that cost him his right arm. He then went to Penn Tech where her became an electrician. When he was too sick to run the business anymore he volunteered at Penn College to help tutor students in the electrical engineering field."

Today August 17, 1935 Victor Milo Ives was born in San Francisco, California to Lucy Marian (Lumsden) and Milo Reginald Ives. Victor had three younger sisters: “Fran” Frances Elizabeth, Laureen Mildred & “Sandy” Sandra Olive.

Ives Family History:

Vic’s father Milo worked for a furniture store in San Francisco. His parents Lucy & Milo had married in Fresno, Calif. 7-21-1934. Lucy had lived in Fresno, graduating from Fresno High School. Vic’s father had Oregon & Washington roots.

Milo Reginald Ives was born 9-24-1910 in Castle Rock, Wash. to Etta Martha (Beebe) and George Wentworth Ives. Etta & George were married in Clackamas County, Oregon 11-27-1889. Vic’s grandfather George was an old time logger and inventor, born in New York. On September 8, 1918 The Morning Oregonian wrote: “G.W. Ives of Milwaukie, obtained recently a patent on a shaft jack, an ingenious little device, useful wherever shafts have to be aligned and which earned him praise wherever it has been tried.” (Shaft-jack > Patent: US1274554). Vic’s grandfather had an inventive imagination just as grandson Victor would.

Vic’s father Milo had a twin sister: Mildred Rachael. He also had four older sisters: Erma Irene, (born in Rainier, Ore.), Elsie Olive, (born in Kelso, Wash.), Mary Etta (born in Castle Rock, Wash.), Iris Emma (born in Castle Rock, Wash.) and four older brothers: Thomas Hartley (born in Rainier, Ore.), Victor Leroy (born in Kelso, Wash.), Kenneth Beebe (born in Kelso, Wash.) & Herbert Edison (born in Castle Rock, Wash). Milo had attended Oregon State College.

Back To Vic’s Story…

By 1940 the Ives family were living at: 174 Beverly St. in San Francisco. On November 27, 1940 Vic’s grandfather George Wentworth Ives died at age 79 in Crescent City, Calif. In 1951 Vic at 16 was attending Balboa High School in San Francisco, performing drama productions with fellow classmate Buddy Hatton. Vic & Buddy began co-hosting a kid segment called “Teen Time” for Del Courtney’s music program on KPIX channel 5. The two also assisted Jumpin’ George Oxford on his R&B Radio show over KSAN. In Spring 1953 Vic graduated from Balboa High School.

In Fall 1953 Ives began attending Chico State College. Around this point he began as a disc jockey at KSUE Susanville, Calif. as “Slipalong Side Saddle Sore Cactus Vic” afternoons, then did the evening shift playing popular music. In 1954 Ives became Chico State College, Student Body President. (He attended to 1957). On April 25, 1954 Vic’s grandmother Etta Martha Ives died at age 84 in Carlton, Oregon.

In 1955 Vic Ives became KMOR Oroville, Calif., Program Director. On November 26, 1956 it was announced Vic Ives KMOR P.D. was now also News Editor. He did newscasts and hosted a quiz show. By July 1958 Ives was back to P.D. only and by October 1958 KMOR was off the air.

In Fall 1958 Vic was back on TV hosting a quiz show “Flying Casino” on KVIP-TV channel 7 Redding, Calif., rebroadcast on KVIQ (TV) channel 6 Eureka, Calif. The show was on at 1:30pm weekday afternoons and Wednesday nights. Vic remembers: “This where I met Carol (Holyfield). She worked in Traffic, sometimes was Call Screener on this live show. The name of the show suggested winners would win air trips. That never happened and we ran out of prizes by around the 10th of the month. So, we found things to show like rain from a hole in the studio roof falling into a bucket, while playing records. The show was on against Art Linkletter (House Party) on (KHSL-TV) Channel 12 and our nonsense scored ahead in the ratings!"

On June 6, 1959 Victor Milo Ives, 23, married 21 year old Carol Lee Holyfield in Redding, Calif. They moved to Philadelphia, PA., where Ives served as Operations Director for educational WHYY-TV channel 35. Then back to California. On April 2, 1960 Vic and Carol welcomed their son: Matthew Christopher "Matt" Ives in Redding, Calif.

Later in 1960 the Ives family moved to Bakersfield, Calif., where Vic became KGEE Program Director. By September 1961 Victor & family had moved to Tucson, Arizona where Ives was named KAIR Program Director. On December 24, 1962 Victor M. Ives announced he had resigned as KAIR P.D., becoming General Manager of the Liason Advertising Agency, which was being formed in Montrose Calif., a Los Angeles suburb. Liason was scheduled to open January 1, 1963.

On November 17, 1963 KWUN Concord, Calif., signed on the air from studios at 2086 Willow Pass Rd. Victor Ives (6%) with wife Carol (5%) holding a minority ownership. Victor served as KWUN's first General Manager. Vic also hosted KWUN's daily talk show called "Line One" 11:05am to Noon daily. KWUN played a Middle-of-The-Road music format.

On January 12, 1964 it was announced KWUN an East Bay Area Station, had banned cigarette advertising in wake of the U.S. Surgeon General's report condemning smoking. Vic Ives made the decision, commenting: "The Federal Communications Commission licenses radio stations to operate in the public interest and welfare. I do not see how broadcasting cigarette advertising can be consistent with the public interest in view of governmental report." Seven years later Congress passed the Public Health Cigarette Smoking Act, banning advertising on radio and television, starting 1-2-71. On March 31, 1964 Vic and Carol welcomed their first daughter: Michelle C. Ives in Concord.

In May 1967 KWUN was sold to Kestner & Goldman, Inc., for $165,000. and Vic Ives retained his post as Vice-President & General Manager. On June 17, 1967 Vic and Carol welcomed their second daughter: Melissa Christina Ives in Concord. (She would later follow her father & mother into Radio & TV as KOIN-TV Traffic Manager, them Marketing & Promotion Manager for Clear Channel Portland, as well as "Radio 102.3" personality).

In 1968 Victor Ives accepted the Associated Press Award for Top Editorial in California for 1967-68 on KWUN. The editorial suggested turning the Bay Area Rapid Transit into a long skinny park and for the BART Directors, dressed as their name sake, "Black Bart", to jump out and rob tax payers riding in old western stage coaches running between Concord and San Francisco. Also in 1968 Vic was founding officer of the California Association Broadcast Editorial Directors.

In January 1969 Ives resigned as KWUN V.P. & G.M. He and family moved back to Bakersfield to become KGFM Program Director. On May 12, 1969 it was announced Vic Ives KGFM P.D., was appointed Operations Manager of KGFM and sister KGEE which he had programmed in 1960-61.

On February 2, 1970 it was announced in "Broadcasting Magazine" Vic Ives had joined KEX Portland, Oregon as Program Director of the Golden West Broadcasters station owned by famed movie star & singer Gene Autry. Vic remembers: "Jimmy (Hollister) was the first person I hired. I hired him in San Francisco."

Jim & Vic collaborated, producing “The Hollister & Ives Sometimes Comedy Hour” 4:00 to 6:00pm on Sundays. The show featured skits they improvised: ”Young Dr. Dumb” - a take-off on the Dr. Kildare series with Ives sounding like Lionel Barrymore as Dr. Gillespie - and sketches about the “Hollister & Ives Estate Planning Service”, “Reverend Quick Pockets”, a satire on television religious pitchmen, “Lazlo The Great” “Benny Burnside” “Aunt Penny” & “Retsilloh The Near Great” plus there was music.

On April 19, 1971 Vic Ives began an experiment on KEX. For the next two weeks Radio 1190 would play Old-Time Radio shows in the 7:00pm hour. Here’s Vic’s first schedule:

Mon. 4-19-71 “Suspense Theater” with Robert Taylor.
Tues. 4-20-71 “Gunsmoke” & “Gene Autry’s Melody Ranch”
Wed. 4-21-71 “The Adventures of Superman” “Tom Mix” & “Captain Midnight”
Thur. 4-22-71 “One Man’s Family” “Ma Perkins” & “Helen Trent”
Fri. 4-23-71 “Dimension X” & “X Minus One”
Sat. 4-24-71 “Fibber McGee & Molly” & “The Great Gildersleeve”

Mon. 4-26-71 “Inner Sanctum” & “The Whistler”
Tues. 4-27-71 “Sam Spade” & “Richard Diamond” with Dick Powell.
Wed. 4-28-71 “Mr. District Attorney” & “Nick Carter”
Thur. 4-29-71 “Fred Allen” with Jack Benny & “Vic ‘n’ Sade”
Fri. 4-30-71 “The Spike Jones Show” & “Singing Sam”
Sat. 5-1-71 “The Shadow” with Orson Welles & “I Love A Mystery”

On April 27, 1971 Vic Ives reported he was getting “a fantastic response” to a KEX experiment, playing “Radio’s Golden Years” at 7:00pm. Ives said: “Apparently, it reflects the wave of nostalgia sweeping the country. Some of the mail is from youngsters, who never heard the dramas before.” One woman wrote: “I just wish you could see the size of our kids’ eyes as they listen and learn to use their imaginations for the first time.” The shows continued to May 1st.

On June 14, 1971 KEX began a schedule of 13 weeks of Old-Time Radio dramas, six nights a week at 7:30pm. Beginning with “Lights Out” Mondays & Thursdays, “The Lone Ranger” Tuesdays & Saturdays and “Gangbusters” Wednesdays & Fridays. Ives researched and wrote special programming on old-time radio, following the 8:00pm news. “Lum ‘n’ Abner” followed at 8:15pm each night. During this time the Ives family lived on South Shore Blvd. in Lake Oswego.

Also in 1971 Vic was elected Oregon Co-Chairman of the National Association of Broadcasters for 1971-72. In 1972 Ives began thinking of an idea to promote KEX Radio to more listeners with a Television entertainment program. It was later reported Vic went to a midnight horror and science fiction showing at the 5th Avenue Cinema and saw how well the movie house was doing. On May 11, 1972 Victor spoke to the Oregon Association of Broadcasters conference at the Inn At Spanish Head at 3:00pm. On May 25, 1972 Vic’s father Milo Reginald Ives died at age 61.

On June 22, 1972 it was reported Vic had acquired two of the 1930’s KEX produced programs “Homicide Squad” long thought to have been lost in the KGW-KEX studio fire on 9-23-43.

On September 16, 1972 “Sinister Cinema” originally scheduled for a 13 week run, premiered Saturday night at 11:15pm on KATU. The lighthearted/creepy presentation televised horror movies from the 1930’s to the 1960’s. Victor Ives was host, dressed as a Dracula-like character, accompanied by the disembodied, pasty-faced “Head” of Jimmy Hollister, who floated through scenes, voiceless, mouthing words and rebelling against authority. The intro announcer was Chuck “Chuckles” Gingold, KATU Program Director.

On the debut night, viewers witnessed episode one of the sinister serial "Flying Disc Man From Mars" followed by the sinister cinema 1st feature "Frankenstein" starring Boris Karloff and the 2nd feature "The Frozen Ghost" with Lon Chaney. Originally there was no title for the program. Vic was thinking about shaving off his beard for the show. Somebody from K2 said "No, don't do that. You look more sinister with a beard." And that's how Sinister Cinema became "Sinister Cinema."

On September 18, 1972 Vic Ives began filling in for KEX's morning man, Barney Keep for ten days. Barney was undergoing shoulder surgery. On October 8, 1972 Ives began programming Mel Blanc's old CBS Radio series that aired in the 1946-47 season. KEX aired them Sunday's at 8:00pm. On October 21, 1972 a new character was introduced to "Sinister Cinema" viewers. "Ravenscroft" the butler, which was also Jimmy Hollister, in an old overcoat with a long stringy wig, false eye, fangs, one hand and no vocal cord. Jimmy also played I-gor.

On October 23, 1972 Ives began hosting a KEX series of programs leading up to Halloween called "Monsters You Have Known and Loved" weeknights at 11:00pm. On October 28, 1972 Barney Keep guested on "Sinister Cinema." Hollister & Ives, who never made all that much from the Sinister Cinema appearances, would book themselves into a half-dozen or more haunted houses at Halloween and appeared in costume. They would work in tandem, with one closing the act at one location while the other raced off to the next job. This brought a small financial bonanza into their lives, Ives said.

On November 10, 1972 Ives presented on the "KEX Scrapbook" program another old KEX classic program from the late 1940's "Roy Jackson & His Northwesterners" at 7:45pm. On January 9, 1973 it was reported "Sinister Cinema" now topped the ratings for its time period. The show became so popular, at one time 60 percent of the Portland television audience was watching. On January 13, 1973 Russ Conrad guested on "Sinister Cinema." Then on March 3, 1973 Vincent Price also made an appearance. Vincent had taped a Sinister Cinema segment while in Portland.

On April 15, 1973 it was reported in The Oregonian's "Behind The Mike" column, Sinister Cinema had a 41 share in Nielsen ratings. Francis Murphy also wrote: "The popularity of the program rests upon Ives' tongue-in-cheek role as host, plus K-2's ability to obtain a number of horror film classics. Ives, with his cape and candelabra, is the magnificent personification of a Liberace gone wrong. His wide-eyed expostulations, directed toward speechless, but nevertheless expressive "Head," seem to charm the late-night audience."

On May 3, 1973 Ives began yet another KATU horror when he presented Thursday night at 11:30pm "Tales of Terror" with Vincent Price narrating four short stories from Edgar Allan Poe. On May 11, 1973 Vic revealed in "Behind The Mike" his Sinister Cinema 1914 dress suit was lent to him 30 weeks ago by a woman in Lake Oswego. Victor said: "I hated to purchase tails at that time, because I didn't think the show would last more than 13 weeks."

On June 5, 1973 "Sinister Cinema" introduced its new dungeon set and Oregonian "Behind The Mike" columnist Francis Murphy guested. On July 22, 1973 it was announced the new record "The Corner of Hollister & Ives" had been issued on Portland's NWI record label which featured some of their best routines. In July 1973 Ives was featured as Personality of The Month in "Photo Screen" magazine. On July 30, 1973 Victor introduced the movies "The Lost Continent" & "Monster From The Ocean Floor" at Portland State's Lincoln Hall at 7:30pm.

On September 12, 1973 Hollister & Ives appeared on KATU's "A.M. Northwest" with a comedy sketch on cooking. On September 14 & 15, 1973 Lake Oswego Community Theater presented "21 Years

From Broadway" at 8:30pm at Lakeridge High School featuring Hollister & Ives. On October 13, 1973 Barney Keep returned to "Sinister Cinema" as Dr. Diddle.

On October 30, 1973 Vic presented his written introduction for the 1925 classic, Lon Chaney's "Phantom of The Opera." Portland Opera Guild benefit performance at the Paramount Theater, 2:30pm & 8:30pm. Posters of the event were disappearing, grabbed by collectors. On November 12, 1973 Hollister & Ives performed an old-time radio comedy skit during Lumber Jills' dinner meeting at the Hilton Hotel.

On November 15, 1973 it was announced "The Hollister & Ives Sometimes Comedy Hour" was now syndicated by Nostalgia Broadcasting Corp. In January 1974 "Ron Tonkin Chevrolet" began sponsoring "Sinister Cinema." On Monday January 14, 1974 KEX began a new evening format of old time radio shows. The Shadow, The Great Gildersleeve, Life of Riley, Lum 'n' Abner and KEX's owner Gene Autry's Melody Ranch program.

On May 4, 1974 Hollister & Ives were guests with "The Present Tense" dinner-theatre musical review at the Portland Motor Hotel. On June 15, 1974 Hollister & Ives emceed KEX's coverage of the "Rose Festival Grand Floral Parade" from Memorial Coliseum. On July 13, 1974 Ives hosted films at the third annual Nostalgia Collectors Convention at the sunken ballroom of the Masonic Temple.

On August 17, 1974 Vic's birthday, Ives was named "Best MOR Program Director of The Year" and KEX was named "Station of The Year for Excellence in News" at the Billboard Magazine International Radio Programming Forum at the Plaza Hotel in New York City. On October 26, 1974 Jim Bosley guested on "Sinister Cinema." Ives said: "We've decided to give him a chance to see if he can act. Since the carved pumpkin on the Sinister Cinema mantle has been smashed, we substitute Bosley's head so the kids won't be disappointed."

On October 31, 1974 Vic was back at the Paramount Theater as master of ceremonies for Portland Opera Guild's Halloween benefit movie, Lon Chaney's 1923 classic "The Hunchback of Notre Dame." On February 17, 1975 Ives brought popular former Governor, Tom McCall back to the KEX microphone, with a three minute commentary heard at 8:00am, Noon & 5:00pm. 25 other Oregon radio stations carried the commentaries as well. (McCall had been on KEX 1944. Back after WWII 1946-49).

On March 1, 1975 Golden West Broadcasters announced Vic Ives was transferred to KSFO as Program Director, KEX's sister station in San Francisco. Ives replaced Don Sherwood, who resigned as KSFO P.D. but continued mornings on the station. Sherwood was known as "The World's Greatest Disc Jockey." KSFO ratings had fallen sharply and Ives was brought in to get the station back on top. Vic would alternate ten days in Portland and ten days in San Francisco for the next couple of months. He would continue with Sinister Cinema and his KEX Radio program 1:00pm to 3:00pm weekdays, although some shows would be taped through mid-May. Vic would also continue with KEX as an advisor to see that his policies initiated continued.

On May 2, 1975 Don Sherwood resigned from his KSFO morning show. Ives filled in for Sherwood. Some quick action needed to be taken. Meanwhile back in Portland on May 3, 1975 Hollister & Ives on videotape presented their last "Sinister Cinema" program. On the duos last telecast, the movies "Crucible of Horror" followed by "Mars Needs Women." Sinister Cinema continued with new hosts "Gregory" aka Bob Griggs & "Roger" aka Lynn D. Miller. They taped generic movie intros but after three or four weeks, that idea didn't work and Sinister Cinema went hostless.

On May 4, 1975 Ron Tonkin Chevrolet held a farewell party for Ives, Noon to 4:00pm with a give away drawing for Victor's candelabra and Ravenscroft's outfit. Meanwhile back in the Bay Area on May 5, 1975 Jim Lange, former host of "The Dating Game" on ABC-TV and current co-host of "A.M. San Francisco" with Nancy Fleming on KGO-TV, began mornings on KSFO. When Lange found it necessary to resign his KSFO job in 1974 he said he would never return. "I've been preempted by Sherwood for the last time. I'll never go back." However after a long session with KSFO G.M. Bill Shaw and Vic Ives, Lange finally agreed to return.

On June 4, 1976 Ives was back in Oregon to address the OAB (Oregon Association of Broadcasters) as featured speaker at Sunriver Lodge. On March 19, 1977 Ives announced: "We've regained the old position. KSFO is sailing again in the latest ratings." (Oct./Nov. 1976 Arbitron). On August 3-6, 1977 Vic Ives was on the Advisory Committee for the 10th annual Billboard International Radio Programming Forum convention at the Harbour Castle Hotel in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. On September 10 & 11, 1977 Vic was back in Portland for the weekend.

On April 6, 1978 it was announced Vic Ives was appointed Station Manager of Golden West Broadcasters owned WCAR-FM Detroit, Mich., which was broadcasting the automated Drake Chennault "Great American Country" format. Meanwhile back in Portland on May 19, 1978 the last of the hostless "Sinister Cinema" late movies ended on KATU. Meanwhile back in Motor City on July 17, 1978 it was reported WCAR-FM Detroit was now WTWR. Vic had switched the format to Contemporary Pop Oldies as "Tower 92 FM, The Music Tower."

1980 - Bob Miller, then KEX Program Director, remembers the Golden West executive business meeting in San Diego: "They told us 'No dog and pony show, No slick productions, no flashy gimmicks.' Just bring what you need for a basic business presentation. Everyone complied, Except Victor Ives." Ives rolled out a television and played a pre-produced show about his station's business progress and goals. The presentation was acted by puppets. "We were sitting there and half of us were mad and half of us were trying not to laugh," Miller said. "We were all high-fiving him out in the hall."

On February 20, 1981 it was announced Victor Ives, Vice-President & General Manager of WTWR (FM) was promoted to a newly created position as head and Vice-President of Golden West Broadcasters FM Division which included WTWR Detroit, KPLZ Seattle & KQFM Portland (KEX's FM sister). Vic ran the division from Detroit.

Golden West Broadcasters, President, John Reynolds said: "Victor Ives is a programming specialist and we believe he is the man to maximize the success of our existing properties as well as the development of new FM opportunities." With this new position Vic was back in Portland Radio in a manner of speaking. On March 8, 1981 Vic orchestrated the format change of Portland's KQFM "Q100" from Album Oriented Rock to "The New Solid Gold FM-100."

On June 23, 1982 it was announced Victor Ives was named General Manager of KMJK "Magic 107 FM." Vic was finally back in Portland and as columnist Jonathan Nicholas reported: "After leaving KEX seven years ago, Ives worked in San Francisco and Detroit. During that time, friends say, not a week passed without his request for a transfer back to the Rose City. Eventually he had to leave Golden West Broadcasters to come home." Part of the package, luring Ives to KMJK was an option to buy. Vic's problem: "I had to improve the station in order to get the financial support to buy it. At the same time I was doing that, I was raising the price."

In August 1982 Vic changed KMJK's Easy Listening A.C. mixed format to Rock. On December 12, 1982 Vic incorporated: Milo Communications, Inc. in Lake Oswego with Victor as President & Carol L. Ives, Secretary.

On April 28, 1983 it announced Vic Ives would be hosting a one hour syndicated program called "The Golden Age of Radio Theatre." Later heard on as many as 300 stations including KSFO San Francisco, WCAU Philadelphia, WGN Chicago, KTOK, Oklahoma City, WERE Cleveland, KFRE Fresno, KEX Portland and other powerhouse stations. Originally heard in the Portland area on KYXI from 9:00 to 10:00pm. The program included "Fibber McGee & Molly", Duffy's Tavern", "Life of Riley", "The Great Gildersleeve" and many others with Ives offering a little background on the broadcasts. The show was originally syndicated by Robert L. Bowen, a Detroit broadcaster. The series continues in reruns on the USA Radio Networks & IRN USA Radio. It's the longest running daily syndication and first vintage radio retrospective.

On June 17, 1983 it was reported Victor Ives and a Portland investment group had purchased KMJK from Harte-Hanks Radio, Inc. On September 28, 1983 the FCC approved the KMJK $2.2 Million sale to 107 Limited, an Oregon Limited Partnership, with Victor Milo Ives, General Partner, 9.09% interest; Homer Giesseler Williams, Principal Limited Partner, 22.75% interest; and seven others. On May 12, 1984 Victor Ives began hosting "Film Classics Comedy Festival" Saturday nights at 9:00pm on KOAP-TV and throughout Oregon on OPB. On the premiere Ives presented two Laurel & Hardy films "The Bohemian Girl" & "Chump At Oxford." This continued over a year.

On July 24, 1984 it was announced KMJK was Portland's Number 1 Radio station according to Arbitron ratings. Around this time Ives established a ground breaking non traditional income profit center apart from the station. Such innovations as packaging other media including other radio stations, TV stations and cable systems (acquired at end rates), producing co-op and vendor dollar supported tabloid inserts and invoking the Robinson-Patman Act and Related Federal Statutes to acquire vendor funds for independent grocery chains were among strategies employed which were also incorporated into over a dozen Harte-Hanks Marketing Centers.

On February 8, 1985 "The Golden Age of Radio Theatre" switched Portland stations from KYXI to KYTE, after KYXI changed format and became KSGO. Also in 1985 Ives purchased a sport horse (Olympic Disciplines of Dressage and Jumping) breeding farm off of Stafford Road for his wife Carol and daughter Michelle. Vic was passionate about animals, improving their quality of life.

On July 1, 1985 Vic Ives launched "Oregon News Network." First of its kind on the West Coast began with 19 stations. ONN operated 5:30am to 5:30pm weekdays, using the Portland Trail Blazers satellite distribution. Kent Phillips KMJK News Director was ONN General Manager. ONN operated from KMJK studios at "Kristin Square" 9500 S.W. Barbur Blvd., Suite 302. ONN had a staff of five, including Salem reporter Deborah Barns. ONN later supplied news and sports programs to 50 Northwest radio stations.

On August 30, 1985 the FCC approved the sale of KLIQ (AM) to 107 Limited with Victor M. Ives, General Partner. On September 1, 1985 KLIQ became KMJK 1290 kHz. and began simulcasting KMJK-FM. On December 31, 1986 Victor Ives sold KMJK-FM to Magic Radio, Inc. for $3.9 Million. Ives would continue to operate KMJK (AM) as well as Oregon News Network, now with 30 affiliates. On January 15, 1987 KMJK 1290 kHz. changed its call letters to KVIX. Ives had named the station after himself. Vic commented: "Note quite. It was my wife's idea." KVIX was still licensed as 107 Limited.

On January 19, 1987 KVIX changed its format to Old-Time Radio with vintage radio shows including Ives hosting "The Golden Age of Radio Theatre" at 6:00pm weeknights. KVIX also had news and sports programming. Victor M. Ives, President and wife Carol L. Ives as General Manager. On February 1, 1987 KVIX picked up Al Hams' "Music of Your Life" format. KVIX studios were in "Oswego Towne Square" 9 S.W. Monroe Parkway, Suite 1290.

On July 6, 1987 Jimmy Hollister reunited with his old friend Vic, joining the KVIX family. Together they promised a spontaneous, exciting, fresh and perhaps dangerous foray into radio, something they said had vanished from the Portland airwaves in recent years. Jimmy was heard weekday mornings 6:00 to 9:00am and was KVIX Program Director, free to do pretty much anything according to Vic.

On October 22, 1987 KVIX presented at 8:00pm "Live At The Heathman" broadcast from The Symphony Room where the audience was encouraged to get involved in the old time radio recreation broadcast by hissing, booing and gasping. Another broadcast took place November 19th.

On October 31, 1987 Halloween, Hollister & Ives returned for the revival of "Sinister Cinema" at 11:30pm on KATU with the movie "Frankenstein" starring Boris Karloff, followed by "The Wolf Man" starring Lon Chaney, Jr. & "The Bride of Frankenstein" starring Bela Lugosi & Boris Karloff. Then "Dracula" and starting at 5:10am. "The Invisible Man" starring Claude Raines, ending at 6:30am. Joining the "Sinister Cinema" revival was Darcelle, KVIX's Kevin Ross and Mary Starrett, "AM Northwest" co-host, as the "Bride of Frankenstein."

On March 4, 1988 KVIX broadcast Portland Civic Theatre's benefit dance program "On The Air" from Melody Ballroom with 1940's big band Dell Herreid & His Orchestra. Hollister and Ives were KVIX hosts. On June 11, 1988 KVIX presented "The Rose Festival Grand Floral Parade" with Hollister and Ives describing the goings on from Memorial Coliseum, as well as reports from the parade route.

On June 23, 1988 Victor Ives was ready to sign an agreement returning KVIX to David M. Jacks former KLIQ owner. Ives had fallen behind in his payments, losing $10,000 a month. Under the agreement, Vic would continue operating KVIX for the 90 days, the time it would take for the FCC to approve the transfer of ownership. On September 15, 1988 KVIX switched format at 12 Noon to an all Elvis format. The King would be heard all day and all night. Call letters changed to KLVS. Ives sold his "Oregon News Network" to Fred W. Hudson, who was launching KBNP.

In the early 1990's Ives hosted and produced, for two seasons, a weekly radio program on BBC 5 in London. The program, "Night Beat", was a dramatic series based on a Chicago Private Eye. Later Ives was retained by David Plowright of Granada Television (Brideshead Revisited, Sherlock Holmes) to devise the first News/Talk radio format for The United Kingdom and consult for The Bay FM which became number one in a matter of weeks and quickly reached sold out status.

On December 16, 1993 Victor Ives formed Channel 32, Inc., offering to buy (off the air) KEBN. Ives was backed by Roy Rose, hoping to purchase the Salem TV station, moving its studios to a Beaverton building (10255 S.W. Arctic Dr.) owned by Rose. On July 17, 1994 it was announced Channel 32, Inc. had agreed to pay $900,000 for KEBN which previously aired religious programming until going dark on 10-1-92. Roy Rose's "Peregrine Holdings Limited" owned 49% of Channel 32, Inc. The balance was owned by Ives, Thomas McCoy & Camerson S. Thomas. Ives said Peregrine had already spent more than $800,000 getting Channel 32 ready for broadcast.

On September 5, 1994 KEBN signed on the air with an all-movie schedule. Victor M. Ives was Vice-President & Chief Executive Officer, as well as Acting General Manager, with Roy Rose as Chairman. On September 16, 1994 Channel 32, Inc. officially acquired KEBN.

Beginning on October 2, 1994 Ives was at Barnes Lake, Alaska with the "Rescue 911" production team, taping an episode of the CBS Television series hosted by William Shatner. Vic had organized an expedition to rescue seven killer whales trapped and doomed in a fresh water lake, using sound aversion techniques, heading them to open sea. On January 11, 1995 KEBN became an affiliate of "The WB" Network which Vic negotiated. On February 28, 1995 "Rescue 911" aired on CBS (KOIN-TV) at 8:00pm. On October 2, 1995 KEBN changed it call letters to KWBP, reflecting its WB affiliation.

On October 5, 1995 Vic incorporated: Stellar Film Associates LLC in Lake Oswego with Ives as Chief Executive Officer. The company owns and controls a library of motion picture films. It syndicates the motion pictures to television stations and cable systems in the USA, Canada and New Zealand.

In Spring 1996 Vic Ives invested in JCO Broadcasting, Inc. with Jerry J. Collins as Chairman. JCO had just received construction permits from the FCC to build KZTW 860 kHz., in Troutdale & KZTU 660 kHz., in Junction City. KZTW was the first new major AM station licensed to the Portland area in 40 years. On July 26, 1996 Ives said: "He hoped to have the station on the air in four months and wanted to go all-news. "I think what Portland is ready for is 'Give-us-15-minutes-and-I'll-give-you-the-world' format." However, a year pasted and the station never broadcast. On June 19, 1997 Channel 32, Inc. sold KWBP to Acme Television of Oregon LLC for $17.6 Million, plus 20% ownership in buyer.

On August 1, 1997 KZTW changed its call letters to KPAM with the intent of Robert B. Pamplin, Jr. buying the station, after Vic & Jerry finished building the transmitter site. Gary A. Randall "Christian Supply" co-founder with Pamplin, created the "Christian Hit Radio" format for KPAM, building studios next door to "Christian Supply" at 10209 S.E. Division St. Pamplin also owned a Christian music record label. On October 17, 1997 KPAM signed on the air with a Contemporary Christian Music format. In November 1997 KPAM license changed to JCO Broadcasting, Inc., Doing Business As KPAM Radio.

On December 23, 1997 JCO Broadcasting, Inc., Doing Business As KPAM Radio was granted voluntary transfer of control from Jerry J. Collins & Victor M. Ives to Pamplin Communications Corp. On December 29, 1997 KPAM was sold to Pamplin Broadcasting-Oregon, Inc., for $652,500., equal to 87% of the stock. On August 8, 1998 Vic & Jerry sold KZTU Junction City to Pamplin Broadcasting-Oregon, Inc., for $282,750. On October 21, 2001 Vic's mother Lucy Marian Ives died at age 85.

On September 23, 2002 Oregonian columnist, Jonathan Nicholas reported: "Victor Ives calls it his "latest madness." The Portland radio veteran says things have been "altogether too quiet" since he sold his 860 AM station, so he's bought himself a satellite uplink in Florida. Now he's hellbent on launching, Vic said "a couple of different radio networks from the sublime to what you would expect from me." He plans a classical music network "with personality hosts and a mad hatter morning show" and, yes, much of the programming will originate in Portland. Says Ives, "Can a few screwballs make any difference amid the homogenized hodgepodge which is broadcast today? Maybe."

On February 25, 2003 Victor M. Ives was named Chairman of "SoundWorks International", a company which was formed by the merger of "White Springs Media" a company formed to own and operate an existing earth station satellite up-link facility located in White Springs, Florida and SoundWorks. White Springs facility was licensed to uplink unlimited channels of audio, video and data and had multiple analogue and digital channels. White Springs aka WSTV was seen in Canada, USA, Mexico, and part of Central America and into 21 Asian nations via satellite. "Talk Star Radio" was also created. Later in 2003 Ives formed Movies For Television Dot Com.

In August 2005 WSTV White Springs Television, opened Portland studios. On February 9, 2006 Talk Star Radio announced the launching of a new old-time radio and comedy series, "Radio Legends" hosted and produced by Victor Ives. The daily show, airing weeknights at 6:00pm Pacific Time with Saturday and Sunday night repeats, featured radio shows from the 1930's, 40's, and 50's and comedy bits from the 60's, 70's, and 80's.

On October 12, 2007 it was reported Victor Ives "Talk Star Radio" was now reaching the Philippines and 20 Asian nations with its satellite delivery. On November 10, 2008 Vic incorporated: "Peregrine Communications" in Lake Oswego. In October 2009 WSTV dissolved its TV Network. In January 2013

Victor Ives launched RetroMovies Dot Com, syndicator of a thousand movies to TV, Cable, Internet and Satellite Worldwide.

On December 11, 2014 Victor Ives passed away at age 79 from complications of brain cancer. On April 16, 2015 a Celebration of Life gathering took place at Wilfs Restaurant & Bar (800 N.W. 6th Ave.) which was one of Vic's favorite places.

Pete Schulberg said: "He really appreciated what radio was and what it could do. He really knew the business."

Her great-great-grandfather, William E. Ives, settled in Amboy in the early 1860s and was the town mayor, clerk and a well-known attorney. He was a friend of Abraham Lincoln who spoke once from the balcony of Ives' office in downtown Amboy on his way to a debate with Douglas in Freeport. Charles was Helen's grandfather and also practiced law in Amboy in the late 1800s. Helen's father, F.J. Blocher, was the proprietor of a clothing store in Franklin Grove and was known as "Blocher the Clothier."

Personal communication, Howard Jeffrey, 16 Feb 2016 --

"Both my mother and I have met and spoken to Judith (Judy) Casey a few times. We know her as Judy Ives who played the organ at the North Guilford Church, midway between Norwich and Guilford Center. It is a very old church and they only hold services for a month or so in the summer. The seats (benches) are hard and uncomfortable and the organ is an old pedal-pump instrument but Judy could sure make it "sing"!

"Obituary For Rodley Layten Ives

Rodley Layten Ives June 1, 1947 - November 6, 2020

Taken from us all too soon by a complication of a months-long illness, Rod died at home on the afternoon of November 6th. The first born son of Layton Eugene Ives, originally from Cedaredge, Colorado, and Phyllis Milton Moore Ives, from Sydney, Australia, Rod lived his entire life in McCloud, where he was beloved by all who had the good fortune to know him.

Gregarious, hearty and ruddy-cheeked, Rod first found his talents at friendship as a member of The Quincy Street Gang. Attachments he formed then carried through his entire life. After graduating from McCloud High School, Rod served his country in the Vietnam War aboard the USS Catskill, MCS-1, a mine-sweeper. Home from the Navy, he spent 20 years as a timber faller with Champion International, a profession he loved. He later moved on to the McCloud planing mill where he ultimately learned the precision skills of a saw filer, a profession that saw him through to retirement.

Rod saw much of his life in terms of service, and in that spirit he served for 30 years on McCloud's Volunteer Fire Department, the last 25 years as Captain. But the biggest imprint he left behind came from his great and generous heart as he extended friendship and a helping hand to neighbors near and far.

Rod is survived by his wife and partner of 30 years, Natalie Honeycutt, who will deeply miss his steadfast, cheerful presence in every aspect of their life together.

Rod is also survived by a brother, Randy; a son, Craig; a daughter, Stachia; two step-children, Andrew and Jennifer; six grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

A memorial gathering, for all of the many people Rod loved and who loved him, will be held some place in the out-of-doors that Rod so enjoyed, once the pandemic has finally passed. In the meantime, please stay safe, and keep him in your hearts.

"Laurel Forest Ives (1925 - 2011)

Our beloved father and grandfather, Laurel Forest Ives (Grandpa Laurel), 86, of Lake Havasu City, was called to the Lord on September 20, 2011, at his home.

Laurel was born January 8, 1925, in Wetaskwin, Alberta, Canada. Laurel was one of seven children to parents Harry Earl Ives and Lottie May Cox. Laurel married and had four daughters. Laurel loved his accomplishments in his younger days as a Bronc Rider; he was a member of the Rodeo Cowboy Association, and has been inducted into the Cowboy Hall of Fame. He loved riding, and was an avid 'handicapper' at many race tracks and O.T.B.s. The C.D. and song 'Fame, A Tough Bronc to Ride', written by his friend Walter H. (Buddy) Gale, of Buck Lake, Canada was inspired by Laurel ...who dreamed of rodeo fame. Laurel rodeoed broncs and bulls for more than twenty years while cowboying on the ranches of southern Alberta Canada; calling Pat and Fred Burton's Ranch in Claresholm, Canada his home where he found his love and talent for bronc riding. Laurel was a true cowboy. Later in his life, Laurel lived in Southern California and worked on numerous motion picture and television westerns. Laurel retired to Lake Havasu City. His spirit and memory will continue to live in the hearts of all those who knew him. He will deeply be missed by all of his family and friends.

Laurel is survived by his daughters, Sandra Gail Nehme, Elizabeth Laurel Ives, Lottie Michelle Ives-Rock, Selena Teresa Ives Fallara; their mother Marie Ives; their spouses Jamal Nehme, Michael Rock and Angelo Fallara; his seven grandchildren, Natasha Claire Nehme, Alana Lea Nehme, Robert Wesley Johnson - US Navy Veteran E4, Zachary Forest Hunter, Nicholas John Fallara, Mackenzie Jade Rock and Autumn Rose Rock; Robert Wesley Johnson's father, Todd Johnson; Laurel's brother Ronnie Ives and sister Lois Hengel of Alberta, Canada, and great lifelong friends George Williams and Joe Harris.

Thank you to the staff of Havasu Nursing Center for the kind and loving care of our Cowboy, and thank you to Hilltop Community Church.

Thoughts and condolences may be submitted to the family at www.lietz-frazefuneralhome.com. Arrangements were placed under the care of Lietz-Fraze Funeral Home & Crematory."

Norma was age 16 all during her senior year and graduated at age 17 on her birthday in May. She worked at the bank part time during high school and for a full year later to save up for college.

Norma attended Manhattan Bible College where she met Ashley J. Ives who married her January 15, 1947. To this union were born Robert Ashley Ives on May 15, 1949, Nancy Adele Ives on August 17, 1950, Linda Ives on February 2, 1952, and Susan Aline Ives on March 19, 1959. Norma worked as a secretary in various locations, including the state hospital in the civil service business administration division.

Norma had married at 19 years old and had become a pastor's wife in small rural towns. She learned to make note of it when it rained, because that was often the topic of discussion. Norma often told the story of being invited to lunch and the hostess who was making biscuits had a big bottle on the table because a calf was being bottle fed. Norma's husband died of cancer March 8, 2002 and her youngest child, Susan, died June 28, 2017. "

Joyce Marie (Ives) Keeten of Glade, Kansas, passed away at 1:47AM at the Logan Manor in Logan, Kansas, on January 11th, 2016, at the age of 75. She was born in Stockton, Kansas, on February 21st, 1940, to Harold Ashley Ives and Hilma Grace (Fisher) Ives. She was the 7th of 8 children. She worked for the phone company in Hays, Kansas, for several years before and after marrying Donald Dean Keeten on February 23rd, 1964. They were brought together in holy matrimony at the Christian Church in Stockton, Kansas. They were a little over a month shy of celebrating 52 years of marriage.

She worked for the Phillipsburg Long Term Care Facility in Phillipsburg, Kansas, for 33 years as a nurses' aid. Her dedication to helping those in need extended beyond her occupation to include friends and family who needed someone to drive them, sometimes long distances, to see doctors. She held many hands as people wept with pain and offered reassurances when the darkness of despair threatened to overwhelm them. Her extensive community of friends and family knew they could ask her for help, and if she could give it, she would. She enjoyed quilting, a hobby she shared with her mother. She tried to give a blanket to every new baby in the family and a quilt to every new marriage. She enjoyed playing the piano and performed that service for the Glade Methodist Church, and also for weddings for many decades.

She is survived by her loving husband, Donald Dean Keeten, and two sons and their wives Jeffrey Dean Keeten and Janet Elaine (Hesler) Keeten of Dodge City, Kansas, and Gregrey Lynn Keeten and Tonya Nicole (Stites) Keeten of Glade, Kansas. She has six grandchildren: Caleb Dean, Kollette Danielle, Cadence Liliana, Kasen Lane, Kagan Riley, and Karissa Kilynn. She is survived by a brother, Max Elmer Ives of Bella Vista, Arkansas, and four sisters, Altha Elaine Yoxell of Wichita, Kansas, Norma Pauline Moore of Bridgeport, Nebraska, Ruth Nadine Fenton and her husband Raleigh of Stockton, Kansas, and Dixie Linn Rose and her husband Henry of Levelland, Texas. She is also survived by her sister-in-law Norma Jean (Hartford) Ives of Kansas City, Kansas. There are also two of her nieces who were raised by Harold and Hilma Ives, Marcie Blasko and her husband Ron and Sandy Hubbard and her husband Jovie. Marcie and Sandy were much closer to her than nieces. She considered them to be her sisters.

She is preceded in death by her daughter, Deana Marie, who is now in the arms of her loving mother for the rest of eternity. She is also preceded in death by two brothers, Ashley J. Ives and Harold Dean Ives, and two sister-in-laws, Earlyne (Buss) Ives and LeVonne (Pauley) Ives, and one brother-in-law, Edward Everette Yoxell.

The funeral service will be held at Oliff-Boeve Memorial Chapel at 1115 2nd Street, Phillipsburg, Kansas, on Friday, January 15th, at 10:30AM. The family will be at the Oliff-Boeve Memorial Chapel on Thursday, January 14th, for visitation from 6-7PM for anyone who wishes to come by and celebrate the life of a woman who influenced the lives of every person she knew. She chose to be cremated, so there will be no viewing. She wanted everyone to remember her as she was when she was healthy and alive.

We would like to thank all of the nurses, doctors, and caregivers who provided her with loving assistance in her final months. We want to especially thank the staff of Logan Manor Community Health and the staff of Hospice who eased her suffering and with special kindness helped her final months to be one of contentment and comfort. Additional information for Arnon Taylor Ives:

Arnon Taylor Ives of Estero, FL, passed away on Monday, January 28, 2008, at the age of 80. He was born on January 2, 1928, in Meriden, CT, to birth parents Robert and Isabella Ives. From the age of two he was lovingly raised by his foster parents, Ira and Edith Kinch, and grew up in New London, CT.

Arnie entered the Army at age 17 after graduating from high school. He served as a radio operator and cryptographer and was stationed in Caserta, Italy, for two years. In 1947 he was reassigned to the U.S. and served his last year as a Corporal in the Pentagon.

In June 1953 Arnie graduated from the Univ. of Connecticut with a B.S. in Business Administration and went to work for Sears in Rochester, NY. Until his retirement in 1990, his career was predominantly spent with Sears in many locales, first in retail sales management and then as transportation manager, with the exception of a four-year stint in the early 70's when he and a friend were the original owners and operators of the Sailfish Marina in Port Salerno, FL. Arnie and his wife Linda moved to FL in June 2001 from Warrington, PA.

Arnie was a kind and generous man and loving husband and father and will be forever missed by his wife Linda; sons Arnon II, Daniel, and James; daughter Robin; and the many friends he has held in his life from boyhood and throughout his career.

Arrangements are private and will be attended by his immediate family.

Kerry MAcGregor Serl

It is with a heavy heart that I make this post.

I was in Medford on Sunday doing a show and got an email from my mom that my dad had been admitted into the hospital. He was too weak to stand from a seating position so she had called the EMT's for help. They took him in for observation and were to keep him for a few days.

I changed my flight home to a flight to Bellingham and went straight to the hospital. What I thought was going to be a check in with my mom and a quick supportive visit became a death watch with my dad. Over the course of the next couple of days it became obvious that he was getting weaker and weaker. He has been battling terminal cancer since November 11th, and he had given it everything he had, but the battle came to a close.

His favorite place in the world was his home and the one thing that he wanted was to get back there. The doctor's plan had been to let him get some rehab and gain strength so that he could try for more chemo, but there was no way. I ended up working around the clock to get all the pieces in place with hospice, home care assistants, medical equipment delivery staff, insurance companies, carpenters to build a ramp, doctors to sign off and by 7:00pm on Wednesday got all the plans in place and the support of all of his doctors to take him home.

We arrived back to his house yesterday at a few minutes after noon (I had been promising him since Tuesday that we would get him home by noon on Thursday, which he didn't believe - but he told me on Thursday morning that it was an amazing thing that I had pulled off there and he thanked me) by 12:30pm the Hospice nurse delivered all the meds and instructions by 1:30pm we sent home the first home health care person, by 2:00pm family started to arrive, by 6:00pm all of his kids and most of his grandkids had arrived. By the end of the evening there were 13 people from his immediate family who loved him at his side. Holding his hand, hugging him, telling stories about his childhood and toasting a life well lived with his brother from their dad's antique hi ball glasses with chairs all around his bed and people rotating in to spend time with him.

He laughed, he made jokes and was 100% present with everyone talking about there being no place better than where he was. We all ate dinner together and keep dad medicated and comfortable as we celebrated him and loved on my mom.

We woke to find that he had passed during the night.

This brought more opportunities for service as all of the arrangements for his passing had to be made and everything that had been put in place undone, hospice and home care canceled, doctors called off, ramp removed and more. These last few days were some of the most intense of my life and I suspect will be some of the most rewarding spiritually.

Only with God working through me could I get through this week and be allowed to give back a little to the man and family who has given me so much. Rest in peace Dad - I love you and thank you for all you have done, and all you have been, for me and everyone in our family. Thank you to my friends, staff, co-workers, collaborators and immediate family for the support to make this week possible.

I am sad but deeply grateful as well.

Star Wars Engineer Harry Ives Among Best in the World

By Paul Logan
Journal Staff Writer

Harry Ives, considered one of the world's leading mechanical engineers, was involved in a number of top Sandia National Laboratories projects, including the Strategic Defense Initiative, also known as Star Wars.

The longtime New Mexican, who worked for major defense contractor EG&G, was a cyclist and a member of the New Mexico Touring Society. He liked to pedal to work several times a week, taking a 22-mile route to avoid traffic, said a brother, Barry Ives.

He said his brother was wearing a safety helmet on Nov. 17 when the cycle he was riding crashed near the south gate of Kirtland Air Force Base. He suffered a severe brain injury and never regained consciousness. Ives, 54, died Dec. 14.

An athletic 6-foot-3 and 170 pounds, Ives was an independent, quiet person who had a propensity to make things.

One time as teens, the two brothers built a tandem bicycle just for fun.

"I didn't have that much appreciation of the significance of his work until all this happened," Barry Ives said. "I knew he was an important person out there, but he really didn't brag about what he did."

Harry Crockett Ives III was born in San Angelo, Texas. His father, Harry Sr., worked in oil exploration, so the family moved a lot. Ives lived most of his life in New Mexico.

Ives was somewhat rebellous as a teenager, sometimes getting into trouble for wearing his hair long, his brother said.

He was a drummer in the Roswell Goddard High School band and also played gigs with the band master's group.

In college he played in rock 'n' roll bands at New Mexico State and at the University of New Mexico.

After he graduated, Ives worked for a number of years at the Air Force Weapons Laboratory before moving to EG&G. On the Star Wars project, he took part in experiments to develop defensive particle-beam weapons.

He was the lead engineer in Sandia's simulation technology program. Its goal is to simulate the effects of nuclear explosions on materials and components, according to Bill Stygar, a friend.

"Harry was an international scientific resource- the world's leading mechanical engineer in the field of pulsed-power science," he said in a letter to the Journal about Ives.

Stygar said Ives helped design the Saturn and Hermes-III accelerators, the world's most powerful pulsed X-ray and gamma-ray simulators, respectively.

Ives was also on a number of Z-Accelerator projects. Ives developed the mechanical design for the center of the Z Accelerator, which has worked routinely at 20 million amps and 50 trillion watts.

Putting this into perspective, the total electrical generating capacity of all the power plants on the planet is about 10 trillion watts, according to Stygar.

They collaborated on various projects for 20 years. Still, Stygar said he "continued to be amazed at (Ive's) stunning, creative and innovative work."

"He was extremely personable and a man of great integrity; everyone at Sandia respected him immensely."

Ives' father died in 1998.

Other survivors include his daughter, Atalie Liden-Ives; her mother, Katherine Liden; his mother, Carolyn Ives; and a brother, Peter.

A dedication of a memorial plaque will be at 11:45 a.m. today at Team Specialty Products, 1400 Eubank SE. Anyone who wishes to say a few words about Ives is encouraged to do so. Afterward, there will be a 27-mile "Harry Ives Memorial Ride."

Memorial donations may be made to ABQ Bikes H.C. Ives Memorial Fund, P.O. Box 4119, Albuquerque, N.M., 87196."

Thanks. By the way, your personal story about granddad and gardening is great. We lived with them for a while as kids and I have very fond memories of going out with him in the morning to 'help' him in the garden before he went to work. And I too remember snakes in the rock wall and he told me they were a valuable part of nature. and I remember when we went back into the house, grandma always had breakfast ready with freshly baked parker house rolls, etc. I can still see the two of them now, how much they loved each other and felt very special to be able to spend that time with them. Grandma always was so well dressed first thing in the morning and smelled like fresh lilacs. And I can remember granddad helping me with my multiplication tables, and on and on...great family! I am sure each of us has our fond memories. Thanks very much for what you are doing. Love, John

Maxine was born April 10, 1936, at the Memphis General Hospital in Tennessee and was adopted by William and Rosa Schoneveld. She graduated from Booton High School in Booton, New Jersey, and attended college at Syracuse University in New York.

On June 14, 1956, she married Julian Ives in Booton, NJ. To this union were born Christopher in 1957 and Pamela in 1958. The couple were divorced and in 1965 she married John Donald Purvis. It was during her marriage to "Rev. Don" that Maxine first came to Nebraska. Her son Chris attended and graduated from Bancroft school and later graduated from college in Yankton, South Dakota.

Maxine, Don and Pam ended up back on the east coast after a time in California where Pam graduated from high school. The couple divorced while living in New Jersey.

In 1984 Maxine married Darrel Lidel in Yankton and in the early 1990s they moved from Webster, New York, to Walker Valley near Crofton, Nebraska, after Darrel retired from Kodak. Later they moved to Yankton where Darrel passed away in 2018. Battling Alzheimer's Disease, Maxine moved to Angelhaus assisted living.

Maxine enjoyed work in community theater in New Jersey, (West Point) Nebraska, New York and finally in South Dakota. While living back east, she sang with the Sweet Adeline's. Libraries were among her "happy places" along with seashores and lakes. She helped launch the Bancroft Public Library in 1974 and was a supporter of the Yankton Community Library. She was an active dog lover involved with the shelter in Yankton.

Left to mourn her passing are her son Chris and his wife Sandy Ives; stepchildren Ruth and Nell Hurley and families and Paul Lidel; grandchildren Elizabeth Papparatto (Rey Montesino), Matt and Nick Papparatto, Alex Ives, Jane Ives; and great grandchildren Aiden and Oliver Montesino.

Preceding her in death are her husband Darrel Lidel; parents Rosa and "Papa Bill" Schoneveld; daughter Pam Papparatto; and grandson Mike Papparatto."

ersonal communication from Leon Ives, 28 May 2014

"I should have given you the following as well. I noted you did not have any information for me, Generation 1, in regards to my being the son of father Leon C Ives, II and mother Bertram Hall Dowd. As you noted, my mother was named after her father Bertram Hall Dowd.

I was born December 31, 1954 in Cherry Point, Craven County, NC. It was actually the Marine Corp Air Station Cherry Point. My father was a Marine (versus civilian employee).

In approximately 1955, we all moved to Jacksonville, FL. When I say we, that includes my parents, older step-brother Mark Hillis, older step-sister Harriet Hillis, and my sister Cora Claire Ives. Mark or Harriet can provide you with information on their father's marriage to my mother.

In approx. 1959, my parents moved to Albany, Dougherty County, GA, which included me and Cora. My step-siblings went off to college. We all lived on the Marine Corp Supply Center base in Albany for a few years and then moved to a off-base home for a few years, still in Albany. In approx. 1962, we all moved to Puntey, GA. That is still in Dougherty County. My sister lived there until approx. 1971 when she married. I lived there with my parents until March 1973. I then joined the Army and lived in various locations stateside and overseas, ultimately retiring in Raleigh, Johnston County, NC.

My sister is Cora Claire Ives and she was born May 1, 1952. I'm not sure what city and county. She married Walter Brettel in approx. 1971 in Albany, GA. They are still married and they have four children together. Please contact Cora for additional information. I am not positive on the approx. dates and perhaps she knows better.

I noted you had my mother living in Leesburg, GA in 1991. I don't think she ever lived there, which is where my sister Cora lives. We spent most of our younger years living in Putney, GA, just outside of Albany, and my mother continued to live their after our father passed away and until she died. "
