Georgianna was from the famed clockmaker and print family Ives. Her father and grandfather Lawson C. Ives were in the clock making industry and inventors for clock mechanisms including various other things like Cotton Linen, Threads Copper and Silver. From what I have read, they were not good business men, however their inventions and patents for things used for clocks, were some of the firsts.

For years I have seen L. C. Ives clocks for sale, of course now they are way too expensive for me...I should have bought one years ago...snooze you loose!

Georgianna was a Baroness

She was quite beautiful, her hair was snow-white by the age of 25 (thank goodness I did not inherit that!) she had three beautiful sisters Edith, Grace and Annie. From what I understand, wealthy American families would send their daughters to Europe to find wealthy husbands...and most likely this was for Edith, Grace, Ann and Georgianna as they moved to Europe and married there, one in England, one in France and my grandmother in Germany. I think two of them are buried in Europe, my grandmother in Garmisch Germany, where I saw her for the last time.

With a chocolate bar
A memory

This brings me to a memory of my grandmother and quite frankly, not a "feel good" memory...you see I was scared of her. She would grab you with a death grip and order you to do something, the one thing that sticks in my mind was when we visited her at a resort where she lived, she asked me to go and get some candy from a closet, of course I obliged as that was a rarity...in this closet to my surprise were many Hershey Chocolate bars (most likely from American GI's)

I grabbed a bar and delivered it to her, she very carefully unwrapped this treasure with her bony fine fingers, wearing rings that were shining in the sun...to find the chocolate almost white from overexposure and age. She then painstakingly broke off one square and handed it to me and one square to my twin sister. With a smile on her face she ate the rest of the candy bar, then ordering us to kiss her hairy thin cheek to thank her... well at least I have a memory, a child's memory...this most likely is why I love chocolate so much, and was stingy sharing it.

All I know about him is that he was born in Dresden 5/27/1860 died in Paris 8/7/1930 buried in the family grave at Trinitatisfriedhof (Cemetery) in Dresden Germany....He married Georgianna 6/1/1886 in the famed Frauenkiche Dresden...

I have to say I'm ashamed and sad because I never asked anything about him or his parents...because I failed to do that, I have regrets and an emptiness.

I found out that he had been the von Meyer that was ennobled receiving his tile of Baron. I read this on a German Wikipedia about my gg.Grandfather Johann Meyer. all this is recorded in the Whitiker Peerage book 1910.

"Gail Ives attended a country school for 8 years and then attended high school in Rolfe, IA for a year and a half. Every day he had to help with chores. In the winter months he also had to hitch up a horse to a sleigh or to a buggy in the warmer months. He then drove 3 miles into Rolfe and unhitched the horse at a livery stable. Since he whistled or sang a lot, the livery stable man nicknamed him "Happy". He had a hard time keeping up with the town kids who didn't have all the extra burdens; he couldn't see much value reading about those old Greeks in the Trojan War so he quit. In April of 1917 he enlisted in the army and went to Galveston, Texas for about a year. He then rented farms till 1944 when he bought a farm at Charles City.

Marie Gallery taught at different schools including Des Moines Township Rural Consolidated north of Rolfe where she met Gail. Marie was Catholic and Gail was Presbyterian. Marie's mother didn't want her to marry someone who wasn't Catholic. Apparently, due to her mother's disapproval, she went first to Mitchell, South Dakota and then Longmont, Colorado. They never talked too much about those things but maybe there was also a bit of an element of adventure. Gail's younger brother, Leon, had T.B. and Gail took him to Arizona for his health....but stopped in Longmont on the way to see Marie.

Anyway, they got married at St. Joseph's parish, Waterloo, IA in June 1926. This was the parish of Marie's parents. According to Marie's sister, Vera, her mother was so displeased that neither of her parents attended the wedding. So they were married in the rectory with Vera and brother Dan being the only two present."

Additional information for Grace M Ives:
From: http://billives.typepad.com/ives_family_history_blog/ --

Grace Ives

The following interesting Ives family story was provided by Jeanita Strong. Her husband is Donald Ives Strang. His grandmother was Grace M. Ives who married Herbert T. Strang. Grace's father was Charles Augustus Ives, born 1841 in Racine, Wisconsin. Charles's father was Stephen N. Ives. His father was Roland Ives, Sr.

Grace Ives, born in 1885 in Davenport, Iowa, was the seventh of eight children of Charles Augustus Ives and Rosebelle Bullock Ives. Grace was born into a railroad family. Her father Charles was a conductor. Her brothers, Robert S. Ives and William G. Ives also worked for the railroad. In September 1902 Grace married Herbert T. Strang of Lake County, Illinois, who worked for the North Shore Electric Railroad. They had 5 children.

On May 15, 1919, Herbert died suddenly at his home in Highwood, Illinois. The coroner determined there was strychnine in Herbert Strang's stomach. Grace was then charged with poisoning her husband. There were almost daily articles on the case from May 16, 1919 thru June 19, 1919 with a concluding article Oct 29, 1919 in the Waukegan Sun and the Waukegan Daily Gazette (Waukegan, Illinois). Grace was arrested at her home and taken to the jail in Waukegan, Illinois, leaving her children unattended. Kenneth was 15, Donald was 13, Lenore was 9 and Thomas was 4.

The newspaper articles at first hinted that Grace was having an affair with another man. It appears from the newspaper articles that no poison was found at the home nor did Grace purchase any poison from any drugstore in the area. The states attorney James G. Welch was sure he could prove Grace poisoned Herbert. R.J. Dady was the attorney for Grace. On June 12, 1919, the judge denied the motion for a special grand jury as the grand jury was not in session. By June 16, 1919 Grace Ives Strang was released on $25,000 bond. Grace's brother, Will Ives (supervisor of the North Shore Electric R.R.) had spent most of his time working on her case since she was arrested.

The bond was signed by a large number of business and professional men of Highland Park and Deerfield, Illinois. The June 17, 1919 Waukegan Daily Gazette listed those who signed the bond. Besides the businessmen, they included her brothers, Charles A. Ives of Erie, Pennsylvania and William G. Ives, R.L. Bullock, a cousin on her mother, Rosebelle Bullock Ives' side, and E.L. Terry, a brother-in-law. On June 24, 1919, Grace took her children to live with her brother Charles A. Ives in Erie, Pennsylvania until the October grand jury.

The last article that I have found thus far is Oct 29, 1919. The grand jury did not indict Grace. "Donald, the thirteen year old son of Mrs. Strang was one of the chief witnesses before the grand jury. Although called by the prosecution, his testimony, more than that of anyone else, is said to have influenced the grand jury in failing to return an indictment. The boy testified that on the night his father was taken ill, that he helped his father to place the food on the table, the father having returned home after the others had eaten. He said he and his father ate the same food."

Donald was called to testify before the grand jury every day for two weeks. The article further stated that several witnesses testified that Mr. Strang had talk of suicide. The grand stated that the evidence for murder also could point to suicide. The grand jury left it open for the prosecution to further pursue the investigation. She was told by my husband's aunt, Lenore, that the family had eaten supper together. Her father had gotten up to get something for a migraine headache and had mistakenly taken the wrong thing. She founnd that if that had been true why the poison was not found in the house and why this did not come out in the hearing.

Jeanita said that can see why Grace's son Donald Robert Strang named his son Donald Ives Strang, in tribute of his mother. Grace's brother, Robert (Bob) Ives. He was crushed between 2 railroad cars in Kansas City in 1918. Robert was the superintendent of the electric railroad.

Printing Firm Founder Dies

Earl Ives, a co-founder of the printing firm, H.M. Ives and Sons of Topeka, 406 Jefferson, died this morning at a local hospital following an extended illness. He was 86.

Mr. Ives was a member of the board of directors of the printing firm at the time of his death. With his father, H.M. Ives, and a brother, Nelson Ives, he was a co-founder of the business in 1905. He retired from the printing firm in 1945 and was a resident of Brewster Place.

He was born March 11, 1886, in Topeka and lived here all his life. In 1969, Mr. Ives was honored in recognition of his 65-year membership in United Commercial Travelers, Council No. 42.

Survivors include three sons, Kenneth Ives, 2230 S.E. 37th, Ralph Ives, Falls Church, Va., and William Ives, Raleigh, N.C.; a daughter, Mrs. Asenath MacGregor, Kent, Wash.; one brother, Nelson Ives, Tecumseh; seven grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at Penwell-Gabel Chapel. Burial will be at Mount Hope Cemetery.

"Scrapbook newspaper clipping, hand written year 1962, newspaper not identified:

MRS. ELIZABETH E. IVES

Mrs. Elizabeth Eddy Ives, Main Street, Candor, died Monday evening, Sept 17, at her home, following a long illness.

Formerly of Owego, she was a graduate of Northfield Seminary at Northfield, Mass., and of Ithaca College of Music at Ithaca. Mrs. Ives taught music in Candor Central School from 1938 to 1944 and again in 1961 and 1962. A member of the Candor Congregational Church, she had been choir director for the past 20 years. Prior to moving to Candor, she was choir director of the Owego First Presbyterian Church. She was an active member of the Susquehanna Association of Congregational Churches.

Mrs. Ives was also a member of the Congregational Women's Fellowship, of the Candor Book Club, and of the Soroses Book Club. She was a director of the Community Club chorus which presented some of the Gilbert & Sullivan operas. She was treasurer of the Candor Free Library for several years, a past president of the Candor PTA, and a member of Stowell Chapter No. 495, O.E.S, of Candor.

She is survived by her husband, Attorney Winston S. Ives of Candor; a son, Richard E. Ives of Clarkson College, Potsdam; two daughters, Janet E. and Marion A. Ives of Candor; a sister, Mrs. Byron E. Waterman of Jewett, Conn.; a brother, Francis T. Eddy of Costa Mesa, Calif.; three nephews and an aunt.

Funeral services were held this afternoon (Thursday) at the Candor Congregational Church. The Rev. Charles Sykes of Zion Episcopal Church, Rome, N.Y., and the Rev. Edgar Frank of First Presbyterian Church, Owego, officiated. Burial was in Maple Grove Cemetery, Candor.

Children of Winston Spencer[9] and Elizabeth Harrington (Eddy) Ives:

Obituary
Lincoln Sentinel-Republican, April 3, 1958

E.B. Ives

Edwin Burke Ives was born at Nevada, MO, June 1, 1884, and passed away at his store in Vesper, Kan., March 18, 1958.At the age of 16 he joined the U.S. Navy and in four years of service saw the world. He served during the Spanish American War and was honorably discharged in May 1905 with the rank of quartermaster.In 1910 he was married to Amelia Mae Swartz of Salina and the young couple made their home in that city, operating a grocery store near Kansas Wesleyan University.During World War I, Mr. Ives volunteered for duty with the U.S. Army, Aug. 1, 1917, and three months later was commissioned a second lieutenant. He served overseas in all the major engagements of World War I where he was assigned to the 2nd Division, Ninth Infantry. He was discharged with the rank of Captain in October 1919 after being decorated with the Croix De Guerre (with palms), the Distinguished Service Cross and the Victory Medal. He was in Germany for a short time after the Armistice but returned to the States when his wife died at Salina during the flu epidemic.Following World War I, Mr. Ives returned to traveling sales work, opening the sales territory of New Mexico and Arizona for Folger and Company and later opening southwest Texas for sales and carload distribution for Wilson and Company. He organized and established the fresh Provision Company, now one of southwest Texas' major provision companies.In 1929 or 1930, Mr. Ives returned to Kansas, selling store equipment, refrigerator cases and similar lines. He acquired the old Vesper bank building late in the 1930s and worked out of there until World War II.At the age of 58, Mr. Ives re-enlisted in the Army. He retained his rank of captain and was assigned to the Provost Marshall's department in California. Later he was transferred to the Transport Command and served aboard ship in the Pacific until he was 60, at which time it is mandatory that line officers be placed on inactive-duty status.Returning to Vesper, Mr. Ives devoted his time to his store and established a good business, always intensely interested in his community. He was a member of the American Legion Post 165 of Lincoln.Mr. Ives leaves the following relatives: A son, Howard Ives and family of Beaumont,

As a member of the graduating class of 1910, Technical High School, Miss Anna Margaret Ives was awarded a prize by the Scranton Board of Trade for an essay on the subject "Scranton, A Railroad Centre". Her essay was read at commencement.

Wedding announcement, April 23, 1913:
Miss Margaret Ives, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Granger Ives, of 1525 Sanderson Avenue, was married last evening to Harold Doud, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Doud. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home by Rev. Dr. A. J. Weisley, pastor of the Green Ridge Presbyterian Church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white brocaded crepe draped with duchesse lace which is an heirloom in the bridegroom's family. The tulle veil was fastened with lilies of the valley. She wore the bridegroom's gift, a lavaliere of diamonds and pearls, and carried bride's roses and valley lilies. Miss Ruth Doud, a sister of the bridegroom was the maid of honor. She was costumed in yellow crepe de meteor with shadow lace and crystal trimmings. The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Zerby, of Schenectady, wore yellow crepe with pearl decorations and carried daffodils. The bridegroom's attendants were Lawrence Doud and William Ives. The wedding music was played by Miss Mildred Mitchell. A reception followed the ceremony. On returning from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Doud will make their home in Clarks Summit.

From Sue Anne McClory 19 Dec 2009:

The attachment is the only color picture I have that shows my grandfather's garden (Granddad, Grandma center with me in her lap, then left Mary Jo with Carol, Jane with Billy, Anne with John, and Esther standing - her son Bobby on rocking horse). But this is just a fraction -- he had rows of roses, arbors, apple orchard, pears, cherries, vegetables, corn field, much more (acres). I really have just a vague memory but I've heard my mother talk about it so it seems like I remember it. It was his hobby -- he rose at daybreak and before going to work, he gardened. I have one memory of me out there with him. He was pilinh hay on the roses with a pitchfork Isuppose to protect them for winter. I said, "Granddad, there are snakes." There were baby snakes in the hay and he pitched them up over his shoulder.

Thanks. By the way, your personal story about granddad and gardening is great. We lived with them for a while as kids and I have very fond memories of going out with him in the morning to 'help' him in the garden before he went to work. And I too remember snakes in the rock wall and he told me they were a valuable part of nature. and I remember when we went back into the house, grandma always had breakfast ready with freshly baked parker house rolls, etc. I can still see the two of them now, how much they loved each other and felt very special to be able to spend that time with them. Grandma always was so well dressed first thing in the morning and smelled like fresh lilacs. And I can remember granddad helping me with my multiplication tables, and on and on...great family! I am sure each of us has our fond memories. Thanks very much for what you are doing. Love, John Harold Doud, treasurer of the Scranton Lackawanna Trust company, is widely known in banking circles throughout Lackawanna County. He was born at Hazelton, Luzerne County, Pa, October 16, 1887, and is the son of E. S. and Ella (Chase) Doud.

Harold Doud was educated in the public schools of Hazelton and Scranton, having come to this city in 1905. While a student at Central High School he was very active in all athletics and was a captain of every team for one year. He held the Northwestern Pennsylvania championship in the 100 and 200 yard dashes for a number of years. After graduating from high school, he was employed at Factoryville, Pa., as a surveyor, running several lines to Binghamton, N Y., and also ran the first flow lines around the land now covered by the Wallenpaupack Dam, the boundary line between Lackawanna and Wayne counties. He has been identified with the banks of Scranton for the past 18 years. He was assistant secretary and treasurer of the Old Scranton Trust company from 1913 until 1924, treasurer of the same institution from 1934 until 1927, and has been treasurer of the Scranton Lackawanna Trust Company since the merger of these two trust companies, April 2, 1927.

Mr. Doud was married April 23, 1913, to Miss Margaret Ives, the daughter of Albert G. Ives, vice president of the First National Bank, Scranton. Mr. and Mrs. Doud have four children: Harold Albert, born Jan 3, 1915, Margaret Jane, born October 13, 1916, Anne Elizabeth, born Jan 2 (sic), 1919, and Esther Louise, born Sept. 15, 1923.

Mr. Doud is a member of the Presbyterian Church, and belongs to the Rotary Club and Chamber of Commerce. He is active in the management of the Gelsinger Hospital at Danville, Pa., and is one of its directors. Mr. Doud has been acting secretary to the Advisory Board of Johnson School since the founding of the school. Mr. Doud is a Republican.

From Sue Anne Warr McClory 7 Mar 2010:

More from my mother [Margaret Jane Doud Warr]: her father [Harold Doud] had a flag pole in the front yard, and every morning he put it up and every evening it went down. He told the family they could go on a trip to the seashore (as they did every year), but he wasn't going as long as his son was at war. So the girls did go. He was also in the local Civil Defense and he volunteered to watch for enemy aircraft at a local tower.

Harold Doud was born and raised in Hazleton, PA. The family moved to Scranton when he was in high school where he excelled in track. After high school, he was worked with the surveying team of Lake Wallenpaupack.

He married Anna Margaret Ives on April 23, 1913, at the home of the bride's parents in Scranton.

He was affiliated with the Scranton-Lackawanna Trust Company until 1931, and then served for several years with Green, Ellis and Anderson, Investment Brokers in Scranton. He was also the manager of Cassat and Co., a security firm. He was then the manager of the Scranton Branch of Kidder-Peabody Co., an investment security firm.

For many years, the Doud family attended and was active in the Green Ridge Presbyterian Church of Scranton. When the war started and gas was rationed, they changed their church membership to the Clarks Green Methodist Church where Harold Doud was a member of the official board. He was a member of the Scranton Rotary Club, the Scranton Chamber of Commerce and the Scranton YMCA. For many years, he was a controller of Clarks Green Borough.

"A. G. Ives of Glenburn, assistant cashier of the First National bank, recently received a letter from his son, Lieutenant Charles H. Ives, of the 311th machine gun battalion, in which he tells of the wonderful work performed by the American soldiers in the St. Mihiel salient. Lieutenent Ives relates how he narrowly escaped death when a big shell exploded only ten feet away from him. In the explosion of the shell a number of men were killed and wounded, as well as a number of hourses.

Lieutenant Ives also tells that after the salient was captured a German sniper was busy shooting at American soldiers. He was finally surrounded and then he shoved up a white flag. 'When one of our men went into the shell hole to get Fritz he shot him, and it is needless to say that after this cowardly act Mr. Sniper's career was of short duration,' Lieutenant Ives states.

Lieutenant Ives received his commission following a course of training at Fort Niagra. Later he was assigned to Camp Meade, MD, and has now been in France for several months.

This remembrance of a story that Charles H. Ives used to tell was transmitted on 19 Feb 2010 by the son of the minister of the First Presbyterial church of Burlington, Iowa (Paul Calhoun), which Charles H. Ives attended:

Seems that Charlie was out on a lion hunt with a friend when they glimpsed a lioness exiting her cave. The two intrepid hunters did not get off a shot but arriving at the cave they could hear mewlings coming from within. Charlie's friend stood guard at the cave entrance while Charlie entered on hands and knees, flashlight in one hand, gun slung over his shoulder. At the rear of the shallow cave he was amazed to find a pile of new lion kittens in the security of the darkness. As he reached towards them, Hades itself opened before him! The following events transpired with near simultaneity. One of the "helpless" little cubs in a single swipe managed to dislodge his glasses and send his flashlight flying against the wall of the cave. Plunged into total darkness, Charlie's adrenaline fired through his bloodstream at the volume of a roar which could be heard into the depths of the earth. Charlie spun to see the outline of an enraged mama plunging and plunging at the entrance of the cave. Yet she seemed to be making no progress. Above the awful cacophony reverberating off the walls and slamming over his body, a just perceptible wild voice shouted, "I've got her by the tail, shoot for God's sake!" He was an amazing man. Filled me with the romance of Africa.

Additional information for Marvin Henry Ives:

https://www.cozine.com/obituary/Lorna-Ives --

"Lorna Blanche Stouffer was born May 1st, 1918 in York, Nebraska. At Birth, both Lorna and her mother both almost died. Thanks be to God. Both survived and lived long and healthy lives.

Lorna's early life was spent on the family farm near what was then the town of Arborville, Nebraska. Lorna entertained herself by seeing how many baby chicks she could stuff into a tin can with a stick; and dropping kittens into the well to watch them splash around. Lorna remembers learning to iron clothes with an iron heated on top of a cast iron stove.

In order to see if the iron was hot enough, her mother taught her to lick her finger and barely touch the iron to see if it sizzled. In her child's mind she reasoned, "Why lick your finger when your tongue is already wet?" Needless to say, she suffered terribly!

When Lorna was seven, her only sibling was born, a sister Dorothy. By then the family had moved from the farm to the town of York where the girls were raised and schooled.

As a young person and into adulthood, Lorna was a pianist, accompanying groups at church and serving as a church organist at a church. She also sang in a number of singing groups as a strong alto. In 1937, she attended York College there she met a handsome young man from Kansas who wooed her with beautiful poetry such as:

"The gum chewing girl and the cud chewing cow

Look alike, but they're different somehow.

OH, I see it now!

It's the intelligent look on the face of the cow."

Somehow, Lorna was smitten and they eventually married on Easter Sunday, April 9th, 1939 at the home of Lorna's parents. Marvin and Lorna moved to Emporia Kansas, where Marvin graduated from what is now Emporia State University Teachers College in 1942 Lorna worked as a switchboard operator at the telephone company and later managed a dry cleaning business.

During World War II, Marvin and Lorna lived in Kansas City where Marvin worked as an inspector for Pratt Whitney which manufactured bomber plane engines.

After the war, they returned to Emporia where Lorna Kathleen was born on April 3rd, 1950 in Emporia, Ks. Four years later, Marvin Kevin arrived on March 17th, 1954 after the family had moved to Wichita.

Our mother was a devoted mother who loved her children unconditionally. She allowed us to have a large assortment of pets over the years and willingly drove us to our activities. Mother was a loving, giving friend. In the 1950s she and Dad brought a neighbor lady, who was fleeing an alcoholic husband, and her two daughters into our home. They lived with us for two months in our tiny two bedroom, one bathroom house. This dear lady remained a life-long friend.

Mom supplemented Dad's income by selling Luzier cosmetics which she did quite successfully while still being a Mom whenever Kevin and I were home.

During several Thanksgiving and Christmas Holidays in the 1970s, our folks would open our home to the Nigerian WSU students who attended our church. Mom loved to entertain and was a gracious hostess making everyone feel special. She could always put together a delicious, nutritious meal on her shoestring budget. She was a beautiful seamstress, even working all night on my prom formal. Mom and Dad delighted in their children and were ecstatic when they began having grandchildren!

Mother was one of the most disciplined people we knew. She was very good with money and very frugal but also generous toward others. Although a good person and a church - goer all of her life, she didn't receive Jesus as her Savior until she heard the good news of forgiveness of sins and eternal life at the age of 40. She asked Him to enter her life and followed Him in baptism and her life was forever changed.

Dad received Jesus Christ as his personal Savior at the age of 13. He was kind and humble and never complained. We never heard him say anything bad about anyone. He was gentle and caring with a quiet spirit and a quirky sense of humor. He was always forgiving of others and demonstrated a servant's heart. He worked on many Central Christian Church and Academy projects behind the scenes.

Dad and Mom were members of the Central Christian Church Choir for 34 years. They volunteered at Riverside Hospital for many years, and traveled in their RV with friends for fun but they also traveled around the country working on projects for Mobile Missionary Assistance Program. Through the years, Mom and Dad had daily devotions and prayer for their family. We will miss these faithful parents greatly, but we will spend eternity together - because of Jesus.

Lorna is pre-deceased by parents, Christian and Hattie Stouffer and sister Dorothy Svoboda.

Marvin is pre-deceased by parents Henry and Mattie Ives, and brothers: Wilford, Jimmy, and Charlie.

They leave behind: Marvin's sister, Frances Proctor of Corrigan, Texas; daughter Kathi and husband Larry Staton of Wichita, Kansas; son, Kevin and wife Karin Ives of Zig Zag, Oregon.

Grandchildren: Hilary Staton of Los Angeles, CA; Stephanie Pedersen and husband Trevor of Wichita, Ks; Kevin Christopher Ives of Wichita, KS; Denise Williamson of Oregon; Brian Williamson and wife Ashley of Virginia.

Great grandchildren: Brodie Staton, Emma Pedersen, Hunter Ives of Wichita area; Hill and Quin Redmond and Oliver Hoffman of Oregon.

Ten nieces and nephews, and many cousins.

The family wishes to extend our deepest appreciation, love and gratitude to the staff at Victoria Falls Skilled Nursing, Andover, and Rivercross Hospice for their love, compassion, and caring for Dad and Mom, and our family.

These words were penned by Marvin's hand in 2002, at the age of 87:

Born, MAY 3, 1915, on Grandfather's Timber claim in Stafford County, KS, seven miles north of St. John. No art was taught in grade or High School. I graduated in 1933. Did all kinds of farm work and worked in Oil Fields operating a "cat" and Bulldozer. Started college career in 1935 in York, Nebraska. Married in 1939 and we moved to Emporia, KS where I majored in art. As a sophomore, I was elected to the upper class honorary art society: "AOP". Worked in woodwork shop, service station, all night garage. In 1941, an art teacher got me a job in window display at a small ladies ready to wear and dry goods store where I worked until 1951. During the war, I worked in Quality Control at Pratt-Whitney in K.C., Missouri. Moved to Wichita in 1951 and worked at Boeing in Quality Control (inspecting B47 Bombers) 'til I got a job in window display at Henry's clothing store ... and was display manager at their Twin Corners Stores. About 1964, I went to McCormick Armstrong Printing Co. as a production artist. Worked at this profession for 17 years, retiring from Letters Inc. Retired in 1981. Traveled and camped in several states. Traversed Canada, worked with Mobile Missionary Assistance Program projects from Southern Texas, to Upper Peninsula in Michigan. Sold our home in 2001 and moved to Maple Gardens in Wichita, Ks in February of that year. Been helping residents to paint and enjoying the life here very much. My wife, Lorna, has been with me for 63 years and is very active in the "Village" here. Don't know what I'd do without her.

Additional information for Lorna Blanche Stouffer:
https://www.cozine.com/obituary/Lorna-Ives --
"Lorna Blanche Stouffer was born May 1st, 1918 in York, Nebraska. At Birth, both Lorna and her mother both almost died. Thanks be to God. Both survived and lived long and healthy lives.

Lorna's early life was spent on the family farm near what was then the town of Arborville, Nebraska. Lorna entertained herself by seeing how many baby chicks she could stuff into a tin can with a stick; and dropping kittens into the well to watch them splash around. Lorna remembers learning to iron clothes with an iron heated on top of a cast iron stove.

In order to see if the iron was hot enough, her mother taught her to lick her finger and barely touch the iron to see if it sizzled. In her child's mind she reasoned, "Why lick your finger when your tongue is already wet?" Needless to say, she suffered terribly!

When Lorna was seven, her only sibling was born, a sister Dorothy. By then the family had moved from the farm to the town of York where the girls were raised and schooled.

As a young person and into adulthood, Lorna was a pianist, accompanying groups at church and serving as a church organist at a church. She also sang in a number of singing groups as a strong alto. In 1937, she attended York College there she met a handsome young man from Kansas who wooed her with beautiful poetry such as:

"The gum chewing girl and the cud chewing cow

Look alike, but they're different somehow.

OH, I see it now!

It's the intelligent look on the face of the cow."

Somehow, Lorna was smitten and they eventually married on Easter Sunday, April 9th, 1939 at the home of Lorna's parents. Marvin and Lorna moved to Emporia Kansas, where Marvin graduated from what is now Emporia State University Teachers College in 1942 Lorna worked as a switchboard operator at the telephone company and later managed a dry cleaning business.

During World War II, Marvin and Lorna lived in Kansas City where Marvin worked as an inspector for Pratt Whitney which manufactured bomber plane engines.

After the war, they returned to Emporia where Lorna Kathleen was born on April 3rd, 1950 in Emporia, Ks. Four years later, Marvin Kevin arrived on March 17th, 1954 after the family had moved to Wichita.

Our mother was a devoted mother who loved her children unconditionally. She allowed us to have a large assortment of pets over the years and willingly drove us to our activities. From Valerie Nail 30 Mar 2010:

My grandfather Clarence Frederick Ives (1899-1984) can be looked up on ancestry.com and I have attached a few things to him but have more. He was one of the greatest men I have ever known, going from nothing, left home early to being a pioneer of a small desert town in California (Inyokern) where he homesteaded and became one of the most influencial men there. He started the airport, which was a landing strip for the military and commercial flights at one time. It is still operational, and I understand quite large and military/research oriented. He started it originally so his brother Norman H. Ives who used to fly with Lindberg could fly in to visit him. I have the article from the Prairie City, Ill library with his brother Norman mentioned as one of the eight crewman killed on a flight that crashed in a lightning storm after the wing probably came off the plane. He owned the grocery store in town, operated the post office and ran a gas station for Shell, and more. He was a 32nd degree Mason. His father Claud Dean Ives received the highest Mason honor as a 33rd degree Mason for helping in the aftermath of the 1906 San Francisco earthquake. He moved to California after being born in Ogden, Utah where his father was a business man, then they lived in Idaho before coming to CA, where he met my grandmother Gladys Lindsay. My mother, aunt, cousin and daughter just went back Inyokern for the 100 year anniversary of the city and my mother and aunt were honored there.

Clarences grandfather Norman H. Ives was a member of Co. B 37th, IL during the civil war.

From Valerie Nail 30 Mar 2010:

My grandfather Clarence Frederick Ives (1899-1984) can be looked up on ancestry.com and I have attached a few things to him but have more. He was one of the greatest men I have ever known, going from nothing, left home early to being a pioneer of a small desert town in California (Inyokern) where he homesteaded and became one of the most influencial men there. He started the airport, which was a landing strip for the military and commercial flights at one time. It is still operational, and I understand quite large and military/research oriented. Additional information for Harvey S. Ives:
Personal Communication, James Harvey Ives --
Harvey S. (RN=86) and Myrtie (Setzer) (RN=92) Ives

Harvey S. Ives the oldest son of Albert M. Ives (RN=275) was born in Joplin, Jasper Co., MO, 12 Feb 1880. He died 30 Dec 1934 in San Bernardino, California. He married Myrtie Setzer 30 Aug 1899 in Auburn, Nemaha Co., NE. They had one son and three daughters. He was a carpenter by trade that was taught to him by his father. In Talmage, NE, he had a carpenter shop across the street from where he lived. The lumber yard was next door. His Farther, Albert M. Ives, his father-in-law, Volney B. Setzer, and his Uncle Henry Ives, all lived in Talmage.

Before his father-in-law Volney B. Setzer died, he sold his house to Harvey and Myrtie for one dollar. Harvey redesigned the windows of his new house. He had the first round windows in Talmage. His father-in-law, Volney B. Setzer, ran the flour and feed exchange busness in town. Harvey sold the house and moved on to California, completing the westward movement. Both Harvey and Myrtie are buried , side by side, in the Montecito Memorial Park in San Bernardino, Co. CA.
